Sidewinder One:

Sidewinder Ron Westrum,2013-08-15 In the mid 1950s a small group of overworked underpaid scientists and engineers on a remote base in the Mojave Desert developed a weapon no one had asked for but everyone in the weapons industry desired This is the story of how that unorthodox team led by visionary Bill McLean overcame U S Navy bureaucracy and other more heavily funded projects to develop the world s best air to air missile Author Ron Westrum examines that special time and place when the old American work ethic and can do spirit were a vital part of U S weapons development to discover how this dedicated team was able to create a simple and inexpensive missile Today many decades after its invention the Sidewinder missile is still considered one of the best that America has to offer In a time of billion dollar weapons development contracts astronomical cost overruns and defense acquisitions scandals this revealing highly readable tale about one of the most successful weapons in history should be of interest to anyone concerned with national security

Bingo! Bingo!* Edgar M. Nash, 2003 This book is a must read for all military people and those who are interested in World War Two history of the South Pacific fighting MOST DATES PEOPLE PLACES AND EVENTS ARE AUTHENTIC AND HISTORICALLY ACCURATE The author knows naval practice and procedures from experience and gives us a gripping account of Operation Sidewinder a superb battle plan for the quick and deadly PT Patrol Torpedo boats during the Marines fierce and bitter fighting for Guadalcanal and its vital Henderson Field The story begins in the President of the United States Oval Office with initial measures taken by powerful historic figures steps that defy reader conclusions and quickly gathers strength and direction as it draws the reader along with its gradually quickening pace without disclosing the culmination of Operation Sidewinder until the inevitable action EXPLODES The ending is a shocker Staging Masculinity Carla J. McDonough, 2006-07-19 The men in plays such as Arthur Miller's Death of a Salesman or Sam Shepard's True West are often presented as universal little attention is given to the gender dynamics involved in the characters This work looks at how contemporary playwrights including Miller Shepard Eugene O'Neill David Mamet and August Wilson stage masculinity in their works It becomes apparent that male playwrights return often to the issues of troubled manhood usually masked in other issues such as war business or family The plays indicate both the attractiveness of the model of traditional masculinity and the illusive nature of this image which all too often fractures and fails the characters who pursue it O'Neill's play The Hairy Ape and the character Yank receive much attention

A Lonely Kind of War Marshall Harrison, 2010-12-15 From retired Air Force pilot Marshall Harrison comes a remarkable memoir of aerial warfare in Vietnam In his third combat tour Harrison found himself converted from the high performance world of jets to the awkward looking OV-10 Bronco and assigned as a FAC forward air controller A captivating tale of valor brotherhood and patriotism unravels in the pages of A Lonely Kind of War Forward Air Controller Vietnam a posthumous release by this published author through Xlibris Harrison is a born storyteller There is excitement suspense and humor in this account of the life of a FAC They were a small group of dedicated pilots flying lightly armed prop driven aircrafts in South Vietnam Considered to be the eyes and ears of the attack aircraft their job was to fly low and slow find fix and direct airstrikes against an elusive enemy concealed by the heavy rainforest and jungles an area the FACs referred to as the Green Square The flying scenes are riveting learning to fly the maneuverable Bronco clearing in the fast movers to drop massive 750 lb bombs without causing injury to the friendlies and conducting covert operation into Cambodia over the fence with the mad men in the green beanies On one of these secret missions he is shot down and spends a harrowing night in the jungle FACs lived with the troops in the field and flew from unimproved airstrips they virtually controlled the aerial battlefields of South Vietnam Their losses were staggering and they usually died alone
