Emmanuel Biset, 2012 Fruto de una investigación doctoral el libro explora el pensamiento político de Jacques Derrida. Se trata de un recorrido desde los textos tempranos a los tardíos para indagar las tensiones que surgen en lo político mismo. Un camino que no busca construir una totalidad unificada pero tampoco quedarse en un aspecto puntual sino analizar los desplazamientos que han dado lugar a reconfiguraciones en lo que se puede denominar la copertenencia de filosofía y política en el autor. Desplazamientos que van desde la economía de la violencia a la deconstrucción como justicia proponiendo una lectura posible de Derrida y presentando algunas de las dificultades que atraviesa la filosofía política contemporánea.
