

A photograph of a dirt road winding through a forest. The trees on either side have autumn-colored foliage in shades of orange, yellow, and brown. The road is light-colored and leads into the distance. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

Sometimes the hardest people to love are the ones who need it the most.

How to Love a Black Man Ronn Elmore, 2025-05-01 As he sheds light on the hidden emotional psychological recesses of the black man's inner world Dr Elmore provides down to earth advice and real life anecdotes drawn from his seminars and radio call in shows to show women how to create the fulfilling relationship each partner wants and deserves

Love as human virtue and human need and its role in the lives of long-term prisoners Christina Valeska Straub, 2021-04-06 While the importance of love is rarely questioned the effects of its presence and absence in certain environments often goes unnoticed This book analyses the role of love in the lives of prisoners in a low security English prison It seeks to provide a deeper insight into the meaning and role of love as a dual concept in the social ecology of human existence human development and well being and sets out to encourage a critical and practical re consideration of the potential benefits of love's re inclusion into the prison set up and purpose This qualitative multidisciplinary analysis based on psychological moral philosophical neuroscientific and sociological literature will appeal to postgraduates and early career researchers across the social sciences as well practitioners of Criminal Justice and others interested in offender rehabilitation and the effects of prison

Love in Contemporary British Drama Korbinian Stöckl, 2021-01-18 Despite the recent turn to affects and emotions in the humanities and despite the unceasing popularity of romantic and erotic love as a motif in fictional works of all genres the subject has received surprisingly little attention in academic studies of contemporary drama Love in Contemporary British Drama reflects the appeal of love as a topic and driving force in dramatic works with in depth analyses of eight pivotal plays from the past three decades Following an interdisciplinary and historical approach the study collects and condenses theories of love from philosophy and sociology to derive persisting discourses and to examine their reoccurrence and transformation in contemporary plays Special emphasis is put on narratives of love's compensatory function and precariousness and on how modifications of these narratives epitomise the peculiarities of emotional life in the social and cultural context of the present Based on the assumption that drama is especially inclined to draw on shared narratives for representations of love the book demonstrates that love is both a window to remnants of the past in the present and a proper subject matter for drama in times in which the suitability of the dramatic form has been questioned

Love and Sexuality in Dystopian Fiction. An Analysis of "Brave New World" and "Nineteen Eighty-Four" Lena Gräf, 2016-04-26 Seminar paper from the year 2015 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 2 3 language English abstract This term paper is supposed to deal with how love and sex are depicted in Brave New World and 1984 and if there are any similarities between them Furthermore we will take a brief look at differences and similarities to love and sex in our society What is the attitude towards marriage these days And what is the role of love in all of that After this we will then hopefully be able to identify what love and sex in dystopian fiction means Ever since Thomas More s Utopia love and sex have been a part of dystopian novels In Thomas More s times his depictions were ground breaking Women were not allowed to marry until they were 18 In the past this was highly unusual since most women married at the age of around 14 Furthermore divorce is forbidden which at this point mirrors the time More lived in This clearly influenced all the following writers of dystopian novels They imagine a world that is negatively silhouetted against their own world And since love is a big part of every society it is also a big part in every dystopian society When looking for the most famous dystopian novels on Google two that are immediately suggested are Brave New World by Aldous Huxley and 1984 by George Orwell Both have one thing in common their rather negative and for us rather unusual attitude towards love relationships and sex
