revolving door of players apathetic owners and ridiculous marketing decisions turned the Seals originally based in Oakland into hockey's traveling circus. The team lost tons of money and games cheated death more often than Evel Knievel and left behind a long trail of broken dreams. Live seals were used as mascots, players wore skates that were painted white on an almost daily basis and draft picks were dealt away nonchalantly like cards at a poker game. The California Golden Seals examines the franchise's mismanaged but always interesting history from its ballyhooed beginnings as a minor league champion in the 1960s to its steep slide into oblivion in the late 1970s after moving to Cleveland. Through a season by season narrative Currier brings to life the Seals history with lighthearted anecdotes, personal interviews and statistics about hockey's most infamous losing team.

Jacques Plante Todd Denault, 2009-10-27 The first full scale biography of a legendary and award winning NHL goalie who transformed the game. There are a lot of very good goalies, there are even a fair number of great goalies. But there aren't many important goalies. And Jacques Plante was an important goalie. Ken Dryden. On and off the ice Jacques Plante was a true original, he was extremely talented, boastful, defiant, mysterious and complex. Throughout his tumultuous career as a goalie he played for Montreal, New York, St. Louis, Toronto, Boston and Edmonton. His contributions to and impact on the game were extensive and are reflected in today's rules, equipment and style of play. Thoroughly investigated through archival and primary research and including interviews with figures such as Jean B. Liveau, Henri Richard, Dickie Moore and Scotty Bowman, this biography sheds light on one of the most pivotal figures in the history of hockey.

The Publishers Weekly, 2000 International Sport: A Bibliography, 2000 Richard William Cox, 2013-10-23 There has been an explosion in the quantity of sports history literature published in recent years, making it increasingly difficult to keep abreast of developments. The annual number of publications has increased from around 250 to 1,000 a year over the last decade. This is due in part to the fact that during the late 1980s and 90s many clubs, leagues and governing bodies of sport have celebrated their centenaries and produced histories to mark this occasion and commemorate their achievements. It is also the result of the growing popularity and realisation of the importance of sport history research within academe. This international bibliography of books, articles, conference proceedings and essays in the English language is a one stop for the sports historian to know what is new.
