Provenance and Early Cinema Joanne Bernardi, Paolo Cherchi Usai, Tami Williams, Joshua Yumibe, 2021-02-01 Remnants of early films often have a story to tell As material artifacts these film fragments are central to cinema history perhaps more than ever in our digital age of easy copying and sharing If a digital copy is previewed before preservation or is shared with a researcher outside the purview of a film archive knowledge about how the artifact was collected circulated and repurposed threatens to become obscured When the question of origin is overlooked the story can be lost Concerned contributors in Provenance and Early Cinema challenge scholars digging through film archives to ask How did these moving images get here for me to see them This volume which features the conference proceedings from Domitor the International Society for the Study of Early Cinema 2018 questions preservation attribution and patterns of reuse in order to explore singular artifacts with long and circuitous lives The Routledge Companion to Cinema & Gender Kristin Hole, Dijana Jelača, E.

Kaplan, Patrice Petro, 2016-11-10 Comprised of 43 innovative contributions this companion is both an overview of and intervention into the field of cinema and gender The essays included here address a variety of geographical contexts from an analysis of cinema Islam and women and television under Eastern European socialism to female audience reception in Nigeria to changing class and race norms in Bollywood dance sequences A special focus is on women directors in a global context that includes films and filmmakers from Asia Africa Australia Europe North and South America The collection also offers a solid overview of feminist contributions to thinking on genre from the chick flick to the action or Western film to film noir and the slasher Readers will find contributions on a variety of approaches to spectatorship reception studies and fandom as well as transnational approaches to star studies and essays addressing the relationship between feminist film theory and new media Other topics include queer and trans cinema eco cinema and the post human Finally readers interested in the history of film will find essays addressing the methodological dimensions of feminist film history essays on silent and studio era women in film and histories of female filmmakers in a variety of non Western contexts Marie de Kerstrat Serge Duigou, Germain Lacasse, 2002 Pink-Slipped Jane M Gaines, 2018-02-23 Women held more positions of power in the silent film era than at any other time in American motion picture history Marion Leonard broke from acting to cofound a feature film company Gene Gauntier the face of Kalem Films also wrote the first script of Ben Hur Helen Holmes choreographed her own breathtaking on camera stunt work Yet they and the other pioneering filmmaking women vanished from memory Using individual careers as a point of departure Jane M Gaines charts how women first fell out of the limelight and then out of the film history itself A more perplexing event cemented their obscurity the failure of 1970s feminist historiography to rediscover them Gaines examines how it happened against a backdrop of feminist theory and her own meditation on the limits that historiography imposes on scholars Pondering how silent era women have become absent in the abstract while present in reality Gaines sees a need for a theory of these artists pasts that relates their aspirations to those of
