Negotiating Secular and Sacred in Medieval Art Amanda Luyster,2017-07-05 Offering original analysis of the convergence between sacred and secular in medieval works of art and architecture this collection explores both the usefulness and limitations of these terms for describing medieval attitudes The modern concepts of sacred and secular are shown to be effective as scholarly tools but also to risk imposing false dichotomies The authors consider medieval material culture from a broad perspective addressing works of art and architecture from England to Japan and from the seventh to the fifteenth century Although the essays take a variety of methodological approaches they are unified in their emphasis on the continuing and necessary dialectic between sacred and secular The contributors consciously frame their interpretations in terms and perspectives derived from the Middle Ages thereby demonstrating how the present art historical terminology and conceptual frameworks can obscure the complexity of medieval life and material culture The resonance among essays opens possibilities for productive cross cultural study of an issue that is relevant to a diversity of cultures and sub periods Introducing an innovative approach to the literature of the field this volume complicates and enriches our understanding of social realities across a broad spectrum of medieval worlds Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 vols.) Susan Sinclair,2012-04-03 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies Noblewomen, aristocracy and power in the twelfth-century Anglo-Norman realm Susan M.
