The apostle Paul is recognized as the paramount example of what it means to be a Christian missionary committed to the cause of Christ In his Second Epistle to the Corinthians we read of the struggles he endured in establishing the church in Corinth These struggles gave rise to his expose of his own paradoxical life and ministry based on his firm conviction that strength only comes through weakness Paul in his confessed weakness poured out his life as a participant in the sufferings and death of the Savior He believed that only in such participation would resurrection grace and power be released for the salvation of lost humanity This letter is a powerful blueprint for missionary training institutes and sending agencies as they prepare select and send missionaries to the four corners of the earth The End of Divine Truthiness: Love, Power, and God Paul Joseph Greene,2017-08-01

In The End of Divine Truthiness Paul Joseph Greene confronts stark realities of terrifying theologies that make a mockery out of divine love With urgent resolve Greene answers Martin Luther King Jr s pointed challenge to overcome reckless and abusive power without love and sentimental and anemic love without power Too many theologies cast God either as the tyrant whose loveless power lifts up the mighty or the victim whose powerless love sends the poor away empty Wielding Stephen Colbert s word truthiness as a scalpel Greene slices out one perilous theology after another to restore the wholesome truth that God is love Supported by three world religions Buddhism Christianity and Taoism he discovers a remarkably harmonious and revolutionary divine power that is fully aligned with divine love To reunify love and power here in the world as King challenges it is time to abandon ideologies of divine power that devastate divine love and promote atrocities Greene s call for the end of divine truthiness heralds a new day for the God whose love is power and whose power is love Perfection in Death Patrick M. Clark,2015-11-03

Perfection in Death compares and contrasts the relationship between conceptions of courage and death in the thought of Aquinas and his ancient philosophical sources At the center of this investigation is Aquinas identification of martyrdom as the paradigmatic act of courage as well as the greatest proof of the perfection of charity Such a portrayal of perfection in death bears some resemblance to the ancient tradition of noble death but departs from it in decisive ways Clark argues that this departure can only be fully understood in light of an accompanying transformation of the metaphysical and anthropological framework underlying ancient theories of virtue Perfection in Death aims to provide a new theological account of this paradigm shift in light of contemporary Thomistic scholarship The theological works of William Beveridge, D. twenty five years before going into the ministry at age thirty seven I was always a very positive person and when I went into the ministry I was shocked and deeply disturbed by how people talked about sickness and disease and death The longer I was in the ministry the more I became aware of the great gulf there was between Gods people and God in this whole area I began to see clearly from the Bible what Gods Will was for his people I began to preach and teach about healing and life I began to minister healing to my people I would lay hands on the sick and anoint with oil I began to ask God to heal people It was in the Bible and Jesus did it and He told us to do it so I did it Several people were healed and converted and delivered from Satan Lives were changed by God and I got more and more excited But not everyone got excited In fact I ran into much resistance I found that most Christians just did not believe in the Bible They didnt believe God would heal them and they certainly didnt believe in long life Everyone believed that God took them or He taught people a lesson through sickness or accidents or death So I found that I had to resign from the denomination in which I was a pastor So I started a church in Fort Lauderdale and I have continued to be strong in my faith concerning healing and long life So over the years with all the experiences Ive had and with the negative resistance that I have run up against I have gathered much information and decided to write a book I emphasize how negative and unbelieving we are and how we have developed such deep ruts in our thinking How we blame God How we base everything on the wrong standard How our everyday language is a language of death How we have so much doubt in God It has made me so concerned Only by the love of God flowing through me have I been able to keep my faith and continue to practice what I preach I know it is Gods Will that I help others to see the truth The truth is Jesus The truth is Gods Word We know Jesus was the revelation of God what God was like He was a healer the greatest healer of all
