Understanding Marriage, Family, and Intimate Relationships Jerry D. Lehman, 2005 This introductory textbook is for students who are interested in learning about and establishing healthy marriage family and intimate relationships With divorce rates high and relationships fragile books and courses are needed that help students address important issues regarding relationships The readers of this text examine many important and relevant issues through the lens of theory and research and do so using a written format that is readable understandable and easy to apply to one's life It was written so that each chapter has information that readers will find helpful as they attempt to establish and maintain meaningful healthy relationships There are questions throughout each chapter that help readers focus not only on the material but also on how the material relates to their present and past relationship and family situations The text provides material on the research of John Gottman the object relations theory of Harville Hendrix the solution focused approach of Michele Weiner Davis and the PREP approach to conflict management of Markman Stanley and Blumberg These and other topics discussed are very relevant to students concerns and are addressed in greater depth than found in most other texts The emphasis is not just on couple relationships but also on family relationships Therefore in this book there is extensive coverage of family systems theory and the influence of family rules and family structure on the development of families There is also material on how change produces transitions in family life that must be assimilated into the family structure for example when a couple has their first child Thus both couple and family issues are addressed throughout the book For instructors who want to focus their courses on marriage family and intimate relationships this book would be an ideal choice A study guide for students and instructional material for instructors can be obtained by visiting www.understandingrelationships.net

Mortensen, 2019-10-29 Research on home visiting shows that Early Head Start EHS home based programs benefit from additional training and resources that streamline philosophy and content In this essential guide Walsh and Mortensen propose that alignment with Family Life Education's FLE strengths based methodology results in greater consistency through a model of prevention education and collaboration with families This text is the first to outline linkages between FLE and EHS home visiting It explores a qualitative study of FLE integrated in a current EHS home based program and application of FLE methodology to home visiting topics This approach will influence professional practice and provide a foundation for developing evidence based home visiting practices Online content accompanies the text with videos demonstrating the FLE approach in action and discussion questions to encourage engagement with and understanding of the core material Transforming Early Head Start Home Visiting A Family Life Education Approach is essential reading for upper level undergraduate and masters students in family studies and early childhood education as well as practitioners working with children and families

Counseling and Community Rod Wilson, 2003-04 Traditionally counseling has focused primarily on the individual overlooking the interaction between the community and the individual Wilson has created a biblically based counseling model that anchors the individual within the community The result is a perspective that encompasses all aspects of a person's life where the community becomes a helper in the counseling process The thesis of this book is tied to the assumption that we need a counseling approach that is community oriented rather than exclusively focused on the individual When this is the case we will be able to appreciate the biblical emphasis on the people of God While he prizes a relationship with individuals God's heart is with a body a fellowship a community Both pastors and private counselors need to reaffirm the priority of community and its power in the healing process Rod Wilson PhD York University is President and Professor of Counselling and Psychology at Regent College in Vancouver B C Canada He is also the author of Exploring Your Anger and Helping Angry People
