

The book cover features a large, draped American flag at the top, with its stars and stripes clearly visible. Below the flag, the title 'American Foundations' is written in a large, elegant, white cursive font. Underneath the title, the subtitle 'Politics, Economics, Culture' is printed in a smaller, white, sans-serif font. The background of the lower half of the cover is a historical painting depicting a large group of men in 18th-century attire, gathered around a long table in a grand room, likely representing the signing of the Declaration of Independence. The painting is rendered in a classic, somewhat somber style with muted colors.

Can We All Get Along? 2E Updated Paula D McClain, 2019-06-03 In a nation built by immigrants and be deviled by the history and legacy of slavery and discrimination how do we as Americans reconcile a commitment to equality and freedom with persistent inequality and discrimination And what can we do about it This widely acclaimed text by Paula D McClain with new co author Jessica D Johnson Carew prov Cyclopedia of American Government ,1914 Politics of American Cities Dennis R. Judd, 1984-01-01 Can We All Get Along? 2E Paula D McClain, 2021-01-14 Rodney King framed an eternal question of American politics when he asked Can we all get along The second edition of this widely acclaimed text was expanded to reflect the latest scholarship and the most recent events in Americas ongoing struggle with racial issues the new version of the second edition has been fully updated to include results and analysis from the 1998 mid term elections Here Paula McClain and Joseph Stewart combine traditional elements of political science analysis history Constitutional theory institutions political behavior and policy actors with a thoroughgoing survey of the political status of four major groups African Americans Latinos Asian Americans and American Indians They show similarities and differences in these groups political action and experience and point the way toward coalition competition and consensus building in the face of ongoing conflict Two dilemmas shape the book How do we as a nation reconcile a commitment to equality with persistent inequality and discrimination And what can we do about it from the perspective of ethnic and racial minorities as well as within the dominant culture Rodney King framed what might be called the enduring question of American politics from the Founding forward Can we all get along In a nation built by immigrants and bedeviled by the history and legacy of slavery issues of liberty equality and community continue to challenge Americans Whether we look at the Los Angeles riots the patterns of ethnic representation in Congress or examples of discrimination in schools we see that getting along is intimately connected with who gets what when and how the traditional definition of politics Bibliography of Civil Service Reform and Related Subjects Civil Service Reform Association (New York, N.Y.).
