Race Of Time:

Cities in a Race with Time Jeanne R. Lowe, 1967 The Race Against Time Richard Askwith, 2023-01-12 Inspirational Observer A transformational quest for the secrets of happy healthy whole life running that will change the way you think about growing older Colourful informative and inspiring The Race Against Time is a story of cold science and heart warming resilience of champions and also rans of sprinting centenarians and forty something super athletes barely touched by age Its heroes are experts and enthusiasts scientists coaches runners from many countries each with a different story to tell This is a book for anyone who has ever felt the healing power of running or simply wondered about the effects of ageing It is both a very personal account of one man s journey from despair to hope and an exhilarating guide explaining how timely adjustments to lifestyle and training can slow the progress of physiological decay while sheer human spirit can if you are lucky keep you running happily and healthily all the way into extreme old age Race, Time, and Utopia William M. Paris, 2024 Racial injustice at its core is the domination of time Utopia has been one response to this domination The racially dominated are not free to define what counts as progress they are not free from the accumulation of past injustices and most importantly they are not free from the arbitrary organization of work in capitalist labor markets Racially unjust societies are forms of life where the justifications for how to organize time around life labor and leisure are out of the hands of the dominated In Race Time and Utopia William Paris provides a theoretical account of utopia as the critical analysis of the sources of time domination and the struggle to create emancipatory forms of life Rather than focusing on inclusion and equality before the law as found in liberal theories of racial injustice Paris analyses the neglected utopian tradition of justice in black political thought that insists justice can only be secured through the transformation of society as a whole This transformation is nothing less than the democratic transformation of how organize and narrate our shared time Bringing into conversation the work W E B Du Bois Martin Delany Marcus Garvey Frantz Fanon and James Boggs with the critical theory of Karl Marx Ernst Bloch Rahel Jaeggi and Rainer Forst Paris reconstructs a social theory and normative account of forms of life as the struggle over how time will be organized asking Can there be freedom without a new order of time The Race Before Us Bruce H. Matson, 2013-09-03 Turning 50 years old and facing some of life s biggest questions are daunting challenges A crisis of faith and crisis of health lead towards significant changes in one s life For Bruce Matson a family man with a successful law practice the struggles of health and doubt led to action Combining to podcasts from notable Christian leaders Ravi Zacharias Allistair Begg and Tim Keller careful research and preparation and encouragment from family and friends Bruce ran his race for physical and spiritual health The Race Before Us by Bruce Matson is a wonderful memoir detailing the path of doubt to faith and spiritual malaise to running with God Come alongside Bruce as he navigates the windy roads of faith and health in his pursuit of physical and spiritual well being Making Black History Dominique Haensell, 2021-10-04 This study proposes that rather than trying to discern the normative value of Afropolitanism as an identificatory concept politics ethics or aesthetics Afropolitanism may be best approached as a distinct historical and cultural moment that is a certain historical constellation that allows us to glimpse the shifting and multiple silhouettes which Africa as signifier as real and imagined locus embodies in the globalized yet predominantly Western cultural landscape of the 21st century As such Making Black History looks at contemporary fictions of the African or Black Diaspora that have been written and received in the moment of Afropolitanism Discursively this moment is very much part of a diasporic conversation that takes place in the US and is thus informed by various negotiations of blackness race class and cultural identity Yet rather than interpreting Afropolitan literatures merely as a rejection of racial solidarity as some commentators have they should be read as ambivalent responses to post racial discourses dominating the first decade of the 21st century particularly in the US which oscillate between moments of intense hope and acute disappointment Please read our interview with Dominique Haensell here <https://blog.degruyter.com/de-gruyters-10th-open-access-book-anniversary-dominique-haensell-and-her-winning-title-making-black-history>
