Michele Judith Jacklin,1976 Tales from the 1980 Louisville Cardinals Jim Terhune,2004 Negative vibes echoed through the athletic environs of the University of Louisville campus like claps of thunder in 1979 The coughs and sputters of the engine that had always driven U of L sports basketball was concerning to an athletic department that was under fire for the failings of its football team and its athletic director Basketball coach Denny Crum had taken the Cardinals to two NCAA Final fours in his first four seasons Louisville had not been able to win the great prize but its runs had given rise to great expectations His next four squads burst out of the blocks with lightning speed too When each one wheezed in late February and came to a halt in mid March however great hopes turned into great grumblings Could Crum ever win the big one Eighty three minutes and 27 seconds into the season the fifth starter Scooter McCray went out for good with a torn knee ligament His replacement was brother Rodney a freshman who had arrived in poor condition and with a poor attitude We ll be lucky to win 15 games Crum said He had never won fewer than 20 in any of his eight campaigns but no one argued with this pronouncement Yet with a rookie three sophomores and star Darrell Griffith and his 48 inch vertical leap in the lineup strange zany and enchanting things began to happen Wiley Brown was given a bionic thumb and the prosthesis not only apparently helped his rebounding but also stayed on most of the time Manchild small forward Derek Smith talked of being from Jupiter one night and snatched 15 rebounds with his Goliath sized hands the next Reserve Roger Burkman s demolition derby aggression earned him the pen name Instant Defense while sub PonchoWright s cloud tickling jumpers and jaw dropping dunks got him the Instant Offense title Rodney McCray transformed himself into an indispensable man not overnight but over the course of a few minutes when his sibling went down Above all this quite literally and figuratively was Griffith He led as an athlete by his graciousness and classy demeanor They became a team that put winning above everything Each of them would have welcomed any of the others into a foxhole The discombobulated basketball team set an impossibly high standard of bonding through diversity and adversity and promptly answered that question posed by Crum s peers Yes he could win the big one Jet ,1983-11-21 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news Dallas Cowboys Jaime Aron,2010-08-08 Dallas Cowboys The Complete Illustrated History presents all the legendary games players and teams in the history of this iconic franchise exploring both on the field moments and off the field exploits of America s Team One of the most successful programs in pro sports history the Cowboys have appeared in more Super Bowls than any other NFL franchise and boast a roster of players that reads like an all time all star team all highlighted here with lavish illustrations player profiles game and season recaps and entertaining stories This is the ultimate celebration of the silver and blue for fans of all ages The US Sports Film: A Genre of American Dream Time Danny Gronmaier,2022-12-05 Sports and film are media that create time They are temporal not only in the sense that they are defined and regulated by certain temporalities as a result of processes of social negotiation but also in the sense of modulating and intervening in these processes in the first place They are determined by multiple temporalities referring to and aligning along perceptual corporeality but at the same time they also produce time through and along temporalities of bodily expression and perception. Thus as much as we perceive and understand sports and film by means of our culturally coded conceptions of time, this comprehension is itself already the product of these media's fabrication and modulation of certain audiovisual imaginations of time. This book examines these imaginations with regard to US team sports feature films, understanding the former as the latter's constitutive conflict which makes these films graspable as a genre in the first place. By addressing temporality as an ever new crystallization of a heroic past and an unattainable future in a saturated yet volatile present, this conflict connects substantially to the American Dream as an idea of community building historicity. Departing from a non-taxonomic approach in genre theory and such philosophical recognition of the American Dream as less an ideological narrative but more a social and socially effective imaginary embedded in an audiovisual discourse of time, this book demonstrates the interrelation of sports cinema and American subjectivization along close readings of the poetics of affect of five exemplary sports films: FIELD OF DREAMS, WE ARE MARSHALL, KNUTE ROCKNE: ALL AMERICAN, JIM THORPE: ALL AMERICAN, MIRACLE. Stuck in Halftime Bob Buford, 2010-06-23. Since the release of Halftime in 1994, more than 150,000 people have purchased that book and begun a journey from success to significance. In a way that no one could have predicted, Halftime started a widespread movement viewing midlife as an opportunity rather than a crisis. It helped men and women between the ages of 35 and 50 realize they may have another thirty years of active, vibrant living ahead of them. And according to author Buford, retirement is not the optimal option. But now many of the people who began the journey from success to significance have found themselves sidetracked, stuck in the middle of their transition. Stuck in Halftime coaches readers how to get past the barriers that stand in their way to maturity and fulfillment. It outlines eight myths of halftime and explains the new set of rules for this second half of life's journey. Combining practical guidance with personal stories of people who have become unstuck, Stuck in Halftime renews the vision and determination of those who heard the still small voice of God calling them to a life of significance. Young Man: Ageless Fatherly Wisdom to Hold Arthur Queen Jr., 2010-12-10. Founding Fathers and Proverbial style wisdom and instruction to prepare today's Young Men to face life's challenges. The best men ever known have always stood for bigger causes than just themselves. The book includes duty to God, duty to Family, duty to Country, and duty to self. Also included are the rewards of diligence, obedience, and the rewards of disobedience. In addition, the importance of being purposeful, not wasteful, in one's business, education, and religion is examined carefully, including the dangers of despising authority and living a wasteful existence. Great for any young man leaving home to start life on their own, graduating, facing fatherhood, marriage, desiring guidance, or struggling with purpose and meaning in life and relationships. From Vietnam to the Arctic Circle Jack Whitehouse, 2022-07-05. As a U.S. Navy officer, Jack Whitehouse served aboard a World War II era destroyer at the peak of the Vietnam War, ran special operations on a patrol gunboat out of Guantanamo Bay following the Cuban Missile Crisis, and deployed with the Royal Norwegian Navy to counter Soviet threats north of the Arctic Circle. His
