Johnson,Ron Rowan,2012-05 It is said that love is the greatest gift of all but in reality there are two greatest gifts One is love that much we already know to be true However the second greatest gift is that of being a child for it is only as a child that one knows how to truly believe And it is this simple act of believing that has its own special kind of magic as you will see in this story When a child believes there is an energy that feeds everything and everyone around them It feeds even those magical beings who most adults can no longer see nor will they ever see again because they no longer know how to see that which they stopped believing in Sadly enough there are even some children who stop believing Sometimes it takes the energy of other children to awaken their beliefs again and that is also the case in this story So I invite you to reconnect to the magic that each of us once had the magic that children always hold and the magic that will bring you to a place where everything is possible All you have to do is believe Hasta Luego, San Diego Jean F. Andrews,1991 Learning disabled Donald and his deaf friend Matt are kidnapped by crooks who have stolen rare cockatoos from the San Diego Zoo while his older sister is involved in a Hispanic boy s abuse by his father The Secret in the Dorm Attic Jean F. Andrews,1990 While visiting his friend Matt on the campus of his special school for the deaf nine year old Donald discovers something strange going on in the attic of Matt s dorm and becomes involved in the theft of a priceless necklace from a nearby museum Using Literature to Help Troubled Teenagers Cope with Health Issues Cynthia Ann Bowman,2000-03-30 Today traditional illnesses and high risk behaviors of adolescents have become interrelated through the multitude of physical social and emotional changes young people experience Good literature which gives adolescents the truth has incredible power to heal and to renew This reference resource provides a link for teachers media specialists parents and other adults to those novels that can help adolescents struggling with health issues Educators and therapists explore novels where common health issues are addressed in ways to captivate teens Using fictional characters these experts provide guidance on encouraging adolescents to cope while improving their reading and writing skills With the advancement in medicine traditional types of health issues such as birth defects cancer and sensory impairment have shifted to more behavior related problems such as depression alcoholism and eating disorders All of these issues and others are examined from both a literary and psychological perspective in thirteen chapters that explore health issues through fiction Each chapter confronts a different health issue and is written by a literature specialist who has teamed up with a therapist In each novel these experts define the central character's struggle in coming to terms with an issue and growing in response to their difficulties Annotated bibliographies of other works both fiction and nonfiction explore these same issues give readers insight into helping teenagers with similar problems and provide the tools with which to get teenagers reading and addressing these problems Kid-friendly
