Silent Feminist:

Feminism's Silent War Sophie-Marie Eve Riker, 2011-01-01 Are you tired of being manipulated by women's emotional games Do you feel like feminism has turned society against you Are you ready to reclaim your dignity and power as a man This book exposes the truth behind feminism's hidden agenda and its devastating impact on men It's time to wake up and fight back Inside this book Discover the dark secrets of shit testing and how women use it to control men Learn why feminism's hatred of men is rooted in psychological disorders not equality Uncover the truth about women's dual mating strategy and how it exploits men See how abortion has become a tool for feminists to escape accountability Understand why toxic masculinity is a feminist double bind designed to emasculate men Find out how marriage has become a legal trap for men turning them into modern day slaves Explore how feminism's victimhood narrative grants women unearned power and privileges Learn how to resist the feminist Marxist alliance that threatens freedom and fairness If you want to break free from feminism's lies and reclaim your rightful place in society then buy this book today Silence, Feminism, Power S. Malhotra, A. Carillo Rowe, 2013-01-11 An interrogation of the often unexamined assumption that silence is oppressive to consider the multiple possibilities silence enables The volume features diverse feminist reflections on the nuanced relationship between silence and voice to foreground the creative meditative generative and resistive power our silences engender Materializing Silence in Feminist Activism Jessica Rose Corey, 2021-10-27 This book examines how rhetorically effective uses of silence and materiality mediate feminist activism and discusses the implications of these dynamics for pedagogy Specifically the text establishes a theoretical foundation for what the author terms psychosocial composing or the metaphorical composing and revising of individual participants and society and the contribution of written and visual texts as an input and output of the relationships between individuals and social culture This idea is examined through primary research on the Clothesline Project an international event that invites people who have experienced gender violence directly or indirectly to decorate tee shirts that get hung on clotheslines in public places Through looking at values and roles of silence in global cultures and the use of material arts in activist efforts the author argues for the unique value of silence and materiality in individual and collective spaces The manuscript includes discussion questions and sample teaching materials Overall making connections among composition and rhetoric psychology sociology politics women's studies art and design pedagogy and history this book further demonstrates the potential interdisciplinary approaches to rhetoric and communication Feminist Interpretations of Hans-Georg Gadamer Lorraine Code, 2010-11-01 Fifteen essays examine the work of German philosopher Hans Georg Gadamer to provide feminist interpretations of his views on science language history literature and other topics Affective Activisms and the Right to Have Rights in Turkey Eirini Avramopoulou, 2025-02-26 This book presents a novel approach to the study of contemporary social movements and activism Based on extensive ethnographic research of the life and politics of feminist LGBTQI and women's religious groups in

Istanbul from 2007 to 2015 it explores the affects meanings and interpretations these groups express in their activism in particular their strategic use of human rights language to claim institutional and social legitimacy and their reinterpretation of gender queer theory across politics of difference to make sense of global dynamics that affect their everyday lives Chapters interweave personal accounts and life histories of individual activists with specific historical events to demonstrate the activists dissidence regarding the conditions that have defined their differently marginalised positions in Turkey and the significance of the formation of unexpected alliances The ambivalent yet inescapable bargaining tool of rights is analysed as a demand over affective democratic visions citizenship and a life worth living and thus the right to have rights as it is argued pushes us to reflect on how power works when the political and affective surplus value invested in the need to rethink of rights even beyond human rights themselves lies both in the search for ways of institutionalising and implementing rightful demands as well as in outlining more affective visions of political resistance By arguing that activism is a performative and affective language that is defined by intersectional hopes desires and dreams as much as it engages with legal battles that define who or what might appear as being broken under specific historical and social settings Affective Activisms employs gender and sexuality as analytical tools to make sense of local and transnational politics of resistance in the face of the re emergence of authoritarian regimes sexual harassment gender violence homo trans phobia and Islamophobia in Turkey and worldwide It will be of interest to students and scholars across the fields of women s gender and sexuality studies queer theory critical human rights and political theory sociology and social anthropology

Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1977 Women and Media in the Middle East Nahed Eltantawy, 2017-10-02 The traditional image of the Middle Eastern woman as portrayed by the Western media has tended to be one of a woman oppressed by men and religion Veiling intensifies this image of supposed powerlessness and imprisonment However the Arab Spring uprisings have introduced the West to women in the Middle East who do not conform to this stereotype and have shown the Western media that Middle Eastern women cannot be categorized altogether as one oppressed powerless group This book investigates the diverse realities and complexities of women in the Middle East in terms of their relationship with media platforms old and new Contributors offer a range of perspectives that discuss everything from media portrayals of the veil to women in film and television from women s involvement as activists on the street to the role played in the Arab Spring by cyber activism The collection provides insight into how some women in the Middle East are utilizing traditional as well as new media for purposes of self expression activism and democratization while also investigating media portrayals of women at home and in the West This book was originally published as a special issue of Feminist Media Studies

Women Choosing Silence Alison Woolley, 2019-01-22 Silence is long established as a spiritual discipline amongst people of faith However its examination tends to focus on depictions within texts emerging from religious life and the development of its practices Latterly feminist theologians have also highlighted the silencing of women within Christian history Consequently silence is often portrayed as a solitary discipline based in norms of male monastic experience or a tool of women s subjugation In contrast this book investigates chosen practices of silence in the lives of Christian women today evidencing its potential for enabling profound relationality and empowerment within their spiritual journeys Opening with an exploration of Christianity s reclamation of practices of silence in the twentieth century this contemporary ethnographic study engages with wider academic conversations about silence Its substantive theological and empirical exploration of women s practices of silence demonstrates that for some silence based prayer is a valued space for encounter and transformation in relationships with God with themselves and with others Utilising a methodology that proposes focusing on silence throughout the qualitative research process this study also illustrates a new model for depicting relational change Finally the book urges practical and feminist theologians to re examine silence s potential for facilitating the development of more authentic and responsible relationality within people s lives This is a unique study that provides new perspectives on practices of silence within Christianity particularly amongst women It will therefore be of significant interest to academics practitioners and students in theology and religious studies with a focus on contemporary religion spirituality feminism gender and research methods

Queer Silence J. Logan Smilges, 2022-10-25 Championing the liberatory potential of silence to address the fraught disability politics of queerness In queer culture silence has been equated with voicelessness complicity and even death Queer Silence insists however that silence can be a generative and empowering mode of survival Triangulating insights from queer studies disability studies and rhetorical studies J Logan Smilges explores what silence can mean for people whose bodyminds signify more powerfully than their words Queer Silence begins by historicizing silence s negative reputation beginning with the ways homophile activists rejected medical models pathologizing homosexuality as a disability resulting in the silencing of disability itself This silencing was redoubled by HIV AIDS activism s demand for out loud and proud rhetorical activities that saw silence as capitulation Reading a range of cultural artifacts whose relative silence has failed to attract queer attachment from anonymous profiles on Grindr to ex gays to belated gender transitions to disability performance art Smilges argues for silence s critical role in serving the needs of queers who are never named as such Queer Silence urges queer activists and queer studies scholars to reconcile with their own ableism by acknowledging the liberatory potential of silence a mode of engagement that disattached queers use every day for resistance sociality and survival Retail e book files for this title are screen reader friendly with images accompanied by short alt text and or extended descriptions Cover alt text Background detail of a painting on canvas shows a partial view of the upper body and face of a figure bearded and naked title in painted script Drama Trauma Timothy Murray,2013-11-05 In this engaging cross disciplinary study Timothy Murray examines the artistic struggle over traumatic fantasies of race gender sexuality and power Establishing a retrospective dialogue between past and present stage and video Drama Trauma links the impact of trauma on recent political projects in performance and video with the specters of difference haunting Shakespeare s plays The book provides close readings of cultural formations as diverse as Shakespearean drama the Statue of Liberty contemporary plays by women African American performance and feminist interventions in video performance and installation The texts discussed include installations by Mary Kelly and Dawn Dedeaux plays by Ntozake Shange Rochelle Owens Adrienne Kennedy Marsha Norman and Amiri Baraka performances by Robbie McCauley Jordan Orlan and Carmelita Tropicana stage film and video productions of King Lear Othello Romeo and Juliet and All s Well that Ends Well

White Feminists and Contemporary Maternity D. Hallstein,2010-03-29 This work explores matrophobia the fear not of one s mother or of motherhood but of becoming one s mother in past and present white feminist analyses of motherhood and mothering By tracing white second wave feminism s strategic choice to organize first as sisters then as daughters O Brien Hallstein argues matrophobia became embedded in past and continues to linger in contemporary feminist analyses As a result contemporary analyses reveal crucially important but limited understandings of contemporary motherhood and mothering This important work concludes that matrophobia can be reduced and eliminated by reorienting analyses to mutual responsiveness between sisters and daughters second and third wave feminists
