Love Your God : Muslim Children's Library, 2012 These stories from the early days of Islam illustrate the ideal relationship a believer should have with the Creator Age 8 Love Your God Khurram Murad, Mardijah Aldrich Tarantino, Zainunisa Gamiet, 1982 These stories from the early days of Islam illustrate the ideal relationship a believer should have with the Creator The Muslim World Book Review, 1997 More Words about Pictures Perry Nodelman, Naomi Hamer, Mavis Reimer, 2017-05-08 This volume represents the current state of research on picture books and other adjacent hybrid forms of visual verbal texts such as comics graphic novels and book apps with a particular focus on texts produced for and about young people When Perry Nodelman's Words about Pictures the Narrative Art of Children's Picture Books was published almost three decades ago it was greeted as an important contribution to studies in children's picture books and illustration internationally and based substantially on it Nodelman has recently been named the 2015 recipient of the International Grimm Award for children's literature criticism In the years since Words About Pictures appeared scholars have built on Nodelman's groundbreaking text and have developed a range of other approaches both to picture books and to newer forms of visual verbal texts that have entered the marketplace and become popular with young people The essays in this book offer more words about established and emerging forms of picture books providing an overview of the current state of studies in visual verbal texts and gathering in one place the work being produced at various locations and across disciplines Essays exploring areas such as semiological and structural aspects of conventional picture books graphic narratives and new media forms and the material and performative cultures of picture books represent current work not only from literary studies but also media studies art history ecology Middle Eastern Studies library and information studies and educational research In addition to work by international scholars including William Moebius Erica Hateley Nathalie op de Beeck and Nina Christensen that carries on and challenges the conclusions of Words about Pictures the collection also includes a wide ranging reflection by Perry Nodelman on continuities and changes in the current interdisciplinary field of study of visual verbal texts for young readers Providing a look back over the history of picture books and the development of picture book scholarship More Words About Pictures also offers an overview of our current understanding of these intriguing texts I Am a Muslim: A Modern Storybook Susan Douglass, 1995-01-01 This unit is built around a set of paired stories one from the Qur'an or authentic traditions and one related modern story The overall objectives are 1 to awaken the children's awareness of their identity and worth as Muslims 2 to model Islamic behavior patterns and 3 to cultivate a sense of identification and community with Muslims of long ago and in other parts of the modern world While the unit is designed for kindergarten its stories and activities may be useful for values instruction throughout the primary grades in a variety of instructional settings including full time weekend and home schools This unit emphasizing values education may also be useful in Muslim parenting classes Each lesson consists of the story pair to be presented to the children orally or dramatically and suggested discussion guidelines and activities through which the values and related behaviors are developed and reinforced in the children's understanding. The 15 lessons are intended to implement teaching objectives in various units taught in a typical Islamic kindergarten social studies curriculum on a selective or exhaustive basis throughout the year. Animals Farah Sardar, 1997-07-31 Illustrations and simple text describe the animals that Allah made

The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization, Volume 5 Posen Library of Jewish culture and civilization (Lucerne, Switzerland), 2023-03-21 The fifth volume of the Posen Library demonstrates through a rich array of texts and images the extraordinary diversity of Jewish life during the early modern period. A rich and varied gateway into the primary source material of early modern Jewish history that is very strong on geographical diversity. A magnificent achievement. Adam Sutcliffe King's College London. The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization Volume 5 covering the early modern period 1500-1750 presents a variety of Jewish texts to demonstrate the diversity of Jewish culture and life. These texts originate from Eastern and Western Europe, the Americas, the Ottoman Empire, North Africa, Kurdistan, Persia, Yemen, India, in short a worldwide diaspora. They embrace historical writing and religious scholarship, liturgical expression and economic records, ethics and personal devotion, correspondence and communal regulations, art and music, architecture and poetry. The simultaneous centrifugal and centripetal character of Jewish communities during this era illustrates the distinctiveness of the early modern period in Jewish history and informs developments in world history at large. Including texts written by women, a robust collection of images and extensive material not previously accessible to English language readers, this volume is rich, deep, and enlightening. Routledge Library Editions: Education and Religion Various, 2021-07-14 The 10 volumes in this set originally published between 1965 and 1994 draw together research by leading academics in the area of religious education and provides a rigorous examination of related key issues. The volumes examine the teaching of world faiths in schools, religious education in both primary and secondary schools, and the teaching of morality. This set will be of particular interest to students of Education and Religious Studies. Your Cradle is Green Torsten Janson, 2003 Torsten Janson has been a lecturer in Islamology at Lund University, Sweden, since 1995. YLG Pamphlet, The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization, Volume 9 Samuel D. Kassow, David G. Roskies, 2020-11-24 The Posen Library's groundbreaking anthology series, called a feast of Jewish culture in ten volumes by the Chronicle of Higher Education, explores in Volume 9 global Jewish responses to the years 1939 to 1973, a time of unprecedented destruction, dislocation, agency, and creativity. An extensive look at Jewish civilization and culture from the eve of World War II to the Yom Kippur War. It's a weighty collection to be sure, but one that's consistently engaging. An edifying and diverse survey of 20th-century Jewish life. Kirkus Reviews starred review. Readers seeking primary texts, documents, images, and artifacts constituting Jewish culture and civilization will not be disappointed. More important, they might even be inspired. This set will serve to improve teaching and research in Jewish studies at institutions of higher learning and at the same time promote, maintain, and improve understanding of the Jewish population and Judaism in general Booklist starred review The ninth volume of The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization covers the years 1939 to 1973 a period that editors Kassow and Roskies call one of the most tragic and dramatic in Jewish history Organized geographically and then by genre this book details Jewish cultural and intellectual resources throughout this era particularly in political thought literature the visual and performing arts and religion This volume explores worldwide Jewish perceptions of momentous events that transpired in the mid twentieth century and how Jews redefined themselves across regions throughout an era rife with tragedy displacement and dispersion The breadth and depth of this work goes beyond any comparable collection with detailed insights and sharp focus to accompany its breathtaking scope A major ten volume anthology project more than a decade in the making the Posen Library is an ideal reference tool for scholars teachers and students at all levels The Catholic Library World ,2004 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2005 The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization, Volume 7 Israel Bartal,Kenneth B.
