Mario Schifano The Eighties:

Mario Schifano Mario Schifano, 2004 Considered one of the twentieth century's greatest protagonists of Italian painting Mario Schifano produced works that coincided with Pop and monochrome trends ensuring them a critical reception Many of Schifano's works combine the impetuosity of the Italian and international Transavanguardia European neo expressionism with a hyper modern point of view derived from the speed of technology and mass media chaos This monograph features extensive documentation of Schifano's lively colorful paintings as well as many previously unpublished photographs

Unter-reportage '80 Franco Fontana, 1985 New Theatre in Italy Valentina Valentini, 2017-12-22 New Theatre in Italy 1963 2013 makes the case for the centrality of late millennium Italian avant garde theatre in the development of the new forms of performance that have emerged in the 21st Century Starting in the Sixties young artists and militants in Italy reacted to the violence in their streets and ruptures in the family unit that are now recognized as having been harbingers of the end of the global post war system As traditional rituals of State and Church faltered a new generation of cultural operators largely untrained and driven away from political activism formed collectives to explore new ways of speaking theatrically new ways to create and experience performance and new relationships between performer and spectator Although the vast majority of the works created were transient like all performance their aesthetic and social effects continue to surface today across media on a global scale affecting visual art cinema television and the behavioural aesthetics of social networks Proximity Cinema Ilaria Pezone, 2023-04-19 Defining proximity cinema a concept in which only apparently distant experiences are associated such as private and underground cinema This is the goal of the book to challenge and redefine the boundaries of stale and automatic critical categories Tracing a transversal path that combines family cinema and experimental cinema in the name of innovation freedom from industrial and market conventions Mapping writings for images emancipated from the usual narrative from the general canon Familiar or avant garde works which beg to be looked at through eyes free from superstructures devoid of both pre packaged intellectual meanings and the contemporary perverse desire for fun at all costs Proximity cinema goes to the beating heart of things It is amateur cinema in the etymological amorous sense it asks to be experienced without prejudice it makes a clean sweep of interpretative vices it reveals itself openly offering portions of life it often reaches the abstract consistency of painting through an obstinate observation of reality Under the aegis of Roger Odin and deployed like Stan Brakhage in defense of the amateur proximity cinema looks at the production of images with the aim of restoring dignity artistic historical and sociological to simple yet extraordinarily complex intimate and revolutionary cinematographic gestures which are constantly and dully underestimated if not derided Ilaria Pezone is a teacher at Brera Academy Since 2009 she has been dedicated to the study and practice of private cinema She's made short medium and feature length films including France quasi un autoritratto 2017 Indagine su sei brani di vita rumorosa dispersi in un estate afosa raccolti e scomposti in cinque atti 2016 Concerto Metafisico 2015 Vedere Tra Luigi Erba
