Penrose,2016-05-06 In Masculinity and Queer Desire in Spanish Enlightenment Literature Mehl Allan Penrose examines three distinct male figures each of which was represented as the Other in eighteenth and early nineteenth century Spanish literature The most common configuration of non normative men was the petimetre an effeminate Francophile male who figured a failed masculinity a dubious sexuality and an invasive French cultural presence Also inscribed within cultural discourse were the bujarr n or sodomite who participates in sexual relations with men and the Arcadian shepherd who expresses his desire for other males and who takes on agency as the voice of homoerotica Analyzing journalistic essays poetry and drama Penrose shows that Spanish authors employed queer images of men to engage debates about how males should appear speak and behave and whom they should love in order to be considered real Spaniards Penrose interrogates works by a wide range of writers including Luis Ca uelo Ram n de la Cruz and F lix Mar a de Samaniego arguing that the tropes created by these authors solidified the gender and sexual binary and defined and described what a queer man was in the Spanish collective imaginary Masculinity and Queer Desire engages with current cultural historical and theoretical scholarship to propose the notion that the idea of queerness in gender and sexuality based on identifiable criteria started in Spain long before the medical concept of the homosexual was created around 1870 The Publishers Weekly ,1996

Mucho Macho Chris Girman,2013-12-16 Quality research uniquely enhanced by the author's personal experience In one of the first books to examine machismo from the perspective of Latin American and Latino men Chris Girman relies on a compelling combination of ethnographic research and personal experience to explain how macho men like the author himself regulate and sustain same sex erotic encounters Girman incorporates his own sexual experiences with a variety of Latin men into the book infusing his writing with the unique perspective and vivid description that can only be related by someone who has lived the research he writes about While most of the literature on Latin American male same sex desire ignores the significance of the male body in its investigation this book shows why it is essential to focus on the macho male body and re evaluates so called machismo to forge a more nuanced description of Latin American masculinity Girman incorporates his own sexual experiences with a variety of Latin American men into the book infusing his writing with the unique perspective and vivid descriptions that can only be related by someone who has lived the research he writes about With this book you'll become familiar with various kinds of Latin American homosexual behavior Here's a glimpse at what you'll find inside Machismo Practice Theorists and Macho Performance summarizes previous research on Latin American male homo sexuality and defines the author's concept of machismo and Latin American masculinity. Head Hands Balls and Ass shows why focusing on the body as living matter rather than metaphor as is done in so many other books on sexuality is the ideal point of entry into the study of Latin American male homo sexuality and masculinity. This chapter focuses on specific regions of the macho body: head, hands, balls, and ass to explain how machismo actually promotes rather than denies sexual encounters between men. It also shows the importance of the Latin American family as a variable that structures the manner and frequency in which homo sexual encounters occur. The Dominican Tiguere and Hegemonic Masculinities takes a specific look at a very peculiar form of hegemonic masculinity relying on cunning more than strength to come out on top that is indigenous to the Dominican Republic. This chapter also tells the stories of five of the author's sexual encounters in that nation and discusses the tiguere style of masculine performance. Desire in a Costa Rican Prison analyzes the ways in which desire, power, and pleasure are constituted in the Latin American prison environment. Historical Representations of Same Sex Desire examines two short stories: El Matadero by Esteban Echeverría and Comienzo el Desfile by Reinaldo Arenas which highlight male eroticism as important concepts within discourses on national identity. Both stories conceptualize same sex desire within specific historical moments and demonstrate how male homo sexuality emerges and represents itself not in contrast to the dominant discourse but within that discourse itself. Familiar: Familial Voices by Latino Men Speak Out documents the voices of gay identified Latino men living in Central Texas: men who have come to love other Latino, Black, and Anglo men in the context of very full lives. These men reveal their conceptions of identity, race, performance, resistance, family, pleasure, desire, masculinity, silence, and place. Performing Matter's Masculinity: the Male Body and the Evocation of the non real defies the notion that written representations can capture the lived realities of
