No Place For A Nervous Lady:

No Place For A Nervous Lady Lucy Frost, 2002 Text, Theory, Space Kate Darian-Smith, Liz Gunner, Sarah Nuttall, 2005-08-04 Text Theory Space is a landmark in post colonial criticism and theory Focusing on two white settler societies South Africa and Australia the contributors investigate the meaning of the South as an aesthetic political geographical and cultural space Drawing upon a wide range of disciplines which include literature history urban and cultural geography politics and anthropology the contributors examine crucial issues including defining what the South encompasses investigating ideas of space history land and landscape claiming naming and possessing land national and personal boundaries questions of race gender and nationalism Cassidy et al.: Women and Empire, 1750-1939, Vol. I Susan Martin, 2021-12-24 First published in 2008 Women and Empire 1750 1939 functions to extend significantly the range of the History of Feminism series co published by Routledge and Edition Synapse bringing together the histories of British and American women s emancipation represented in earlier sets into juxtaposition with histories produced by different kinds of imperial and colonial governments The alignment of writings from a range of Anglo imperial contexts reveals the overlapping histories and problems while foregrounding cultural specificities and contextual inflections of imperialism The volumes focus on countries regions or continents formerly colonized in part by Britain Volume I Australia Volume II New Zealand Volume III Africa Volume IV India Volume V Canada Perhaps the most novel aspect of this collection is its capacity to highlight the common aspects of the functions of empire in their impact on women and their production of gender and conversely to demonstrate the actual specificity of particular regional manifestations Concerning questions of power gender class and race this new Routledge Edition Synapse Major Work will be of particular interest to scholars and students of imperialism colonization women s history and women s writing When Mother Came to College Louis Dudley David, 1911

Reverberations of Silence Márta Pellérdi, Gabriella Reuss, 2014-08-11 Whether a conscious choice or constraint silence has always been the result of oppression censorship trauma and mental or physical handicap Its provocative and mysterious nature has always motivated readers and critics towards interpretation The present volume offers to read and interpret silence unexpressed emotions thoughts hesitations and gestures on mainly a textual and verbal level How is the pervasive presence of silence explained in literature and linguistics The collected scholarly essays in this volume offer a wide range of answers The majority of the writings are literary critical in nature focusing on major and less well known literary texts from the Renaissance until the twentieth century The authors approach the works of Spenser Shakespeare Shelley Dickinson Wright Auster Tan and Ishiguro among others as well as less well known silent or silenced authors and their texts with equal dedication Other essays included in the volume either deal with the problem of translating gaps and hiatuses or focus on capturing the phenomenon of silence in speech through analyzing ellipsis emptiness and hesitations in spoken language The controversial and manifold aspects of silence are captured and interpreted in this volume Out of the Silence Wendy

James, 2013-04-01 Winner of the Best First Australian Crime Novel Ned Kelly Crime Awards 2006 I hold Jacky close fix my eyes on the door and walk as fast as I can Oh please don't run away Think of your child if you cannot think of yourself What we are suggesting is nothing the man mutters darkly as I pass through the door and into the brightly lit hall Nothing Far worse can happen Far worse I have a baby two shillings no reputation and nowhere to go but even so I cannot imagine what far worse might be Out of the Silence is a stunning debut novel about three women from very different worlds Maggie Heffernan a spirited working class country girl Elizabeth Hamilton whose own disappointment in love has served only to strengthen her humanity and the remarkable Vida Goldstein the suffragist who was to become the first woman to stand for Parliament When Maggie's life descends into darkness after a terrible betrayal the three women's lives collide Around this tragedy Wendy James has constructed a masterfully drawn and gripping fiction Based on a true story it unfolds at the dawn of the twentieth century against the compelling backdrop of the women's suffrage movement and a world on the brink of enormous change The novel powerfully evokes the plight of women in the early 1900s not least their limited options whatever their class and education However at its heart this is a story of love of love gone wrong of its compromises and disappointments but ultimately of its extraordinary transformative power This is a work of intelligence and talent informed by a deeply humane sensitivity Sydney Morning Herald

The Routledge Companion to Australian Literature Jessica Gildersleeve, 2020-12-22 In recent years Australian literature has experienced a revival of interest both domestically and internationally The increasing prominence of work by writers like Christos Tsiolkas heightened through television and film adaptation as well as the award of major international prizes to writers like Richard Flanagan and the development of new high profile prizes like the Stella Prize have all reinvigorated interest in Australian literature both at home and abroad This Companion emerges as a part of that reinvigoration considering anew the history and development of Australian literature and its key themes as well as tracing the transition of the field through those critical debates It considers works of Australian literature on their own terms as well as positioning them in their critical and historical context and their ethical and interactive position in the public and private spheres With an emphasis on literature's responsibilities this book claims Australian literary studies as a field uniquely positioned to expose the ways in which literature engages with produces and is produced by its context provoking a critical re-evaluation of the concept of the relationship between national literatures cultures and histories and the social function of literary texts

Extensions Sue Hosking, Dianne Schwerdt, 1999 Extensions is a refreshing and stimulating collection of essays that illustrates the diversity of subject matter and the variety of critical approaches now used in English Studies Covering traditional and contemporary works this book encourages readers to rethink and rediscover aspects of familiar texts

The White Man's World Bill Schwarz, 2011-10-27 The White Man's World explores ideas of the white man during the last 100 years of the British Empire Working back from Enoch Powell's Rivers of Blood speech of 1968 it discusses the racial assumptions that accompanied the founding of colonial Australia South Africa and Rhodesia colonies which were popularly known as white men's countries

The Europeans in Australia Alan Atkinson, 2016-07-01 It is the duty of historians to be wherever they can accurately precise humane imaginative using moral imagination above all and even handed Alan Atkinson The second of three volumes of the landmark award winning series The Europeans in Australia gives an account of early settlement by Britain It tells of the political and intellectual origins of this extraordinary undertaking that began during the 1780s a decade of extraordinary creativity and the climax of the European Enlightenment Volume Two Democracy takes the story from around 1815 to the early 1870s By exploring the nineteenth century communications revolution Atkinson casts new light on the way Australia first found its place in a global world This volume is more than a story of geography and politics It describes the way people thought and felt Throughout the trilogy Atkinson traces subtle and sudden shifts of common imagination by analysing the lives of both powerful and ordinary Australians He sets out the ideas and the imagery that moved and marked the people This book like all his work is grounded in thorough and rigorous scholarship yet imbued with compassion and insight Written from the inside it is as he says history caught up with the flesh and memory it describes The culmination of an extraordinary career in the writing and teaching of Australian history The Europeans in Australia grapples with the Australian historical experience as a whole from the point of view of the settlers from Europe Ambitious and unique it is the first such large single author account since Manning Clark's A History of Australia
