the source of the hen sis mysticism in the later Neoplatonic tradition The study provides a detailed analysis of the Jewish medieval trends that developed different forms of mystical union and mystical embodiment through the divine name and spirit The book argues that the development of unitive mysticism in Judaism is the fruit of the creative synthesis of rabbinic Judaism and Hellenistic and Arab philosophy and a natural outcome of the theological articulation of the idea of monotheism itself are strongly grounded in their social and historical context Her focus on contemporary rather than classic Ladino poetry and her argument for the inclusion of Sephardic production in the canon of Jewish literature make Homeless Tongues a timely and unusual intervention

The Art of Mystical Narrative Eitan P. Fishbane, 2018-11-22 In the study of Judaism the Zohar has captivated the minds of interpreters for over seven centuries and continues to entrance readers in the modern day Yet despite these centuries of study very little attention has been devoted to the literary dimensions of the text The Art of Mystical Narrative argues that the Zohar story must be understood first and foremost as a work of the fictional imagination

The Antigone Complex Cecilia Sjöholm, 2004-10-08 What if psychoanalysis had chosen Antigone rather than Oedipus This book traces the relation between ethics and desire in important philosophical texts that focus on femininity and use Antigone as their model. It shows that the notion of feminine desire is conditioned by a view of women as being prone to excesses and deficiencies in relation to ethical norms and rules. Sjöholm explains Mary Wollstonecraft's work as well as readings of Antigone by G. W. F. Hegel, Martin Heidegger, Luce Irigaray, Jacques Lacan, and Judith Butler. This book introduces the concept of the Antigone complex in order to illuminate the obscure and multifaceted question of feminine desire which has given rise to the fascination of generations of philosophers and other theoreticians as well as readers and spectators. At the same time the book argues for a notion of desire that is intrinsically related to ethics. The ethical question posed by Antigone and explored in the book is what determines those actions that one must do as opposed to those that one ought to do.

The Story of Reason in Islam Sari Nusseibeh, 2016-11-09. In The Story of Reason in Islam, leading public intellectual and political activist Sari Nusseibeh narrates a sweeping intellectual history, a quest for knowledge inspired by the Qur'an and its language, a quest that employed Reason in the service of Faith. Eschewing the conventional separation of Faith and Reason, he takes a fresh look at why and how Islamic reasoning evolved over time. He surveys the different Islamic schools of thought and how they dealt with major philosophical issues, showing that Reason pervaded all disciplines from philosophy and science to language, poetry, and law. Along the way, the best-known Muslim philosophers are introduced in a new light. Countering received chronologies, in this story Reason reaches its zenith in the early seventeenth century; it then trails off, its demise as sudden as its appearance. Thereafter, Reason loses out to passive belief, lifeless logic, and a self-contained legalism. In other words, to a less flexible Islam. Nusseibeh's speculations as to why this occurred focus on the fortunes and misfortunes of classical Arabic in the Islamic world. Change, he suggests, may only come from the revivification of language itself.

The Practice of Conceptual History Reinhart Koselleck, Todd Samuel Presner, 2002. Reinhart Koselleck is one of the most important theorists of history and historiography of the last half century. He is the foremost exponent and practitioner of Begriffsgeschichte, a methodology of historical studies exemplified in these 18 essays which focus on the invention and development of the fundamental concepts underlying and informing a distinctively historical manner of being in the world.

Georges Bataille Rodolphe Gasché, 2012-10-24. This book investigates what Bataille in The Pineal Eye calls mythological representation, the mythological anthropology with which this unusual thinker wished to outflank and undo scientific and philosophical anthropology. Gasché probes that anthropology by situating Bataille's thought with respect to the quaternity of Schelling, Hegel, Nietzsche, and Freud. He begins by showing what Bataille's understanding of the mythological owes to Schelling. Drawing on Hegel, Nietzsche, and Freud, he then explores the notion of image that constitutes the sort of representation that Bataille's innovative approach entails. Gasché concludes that Bataille's mythological anthropology takes on Hegel's phenomenology in a systematic fashion. By reading it backwards, he not only dismantles its architecture; he also ties each level to the preceding one, replacing the idealities of philosophy with the phantasmatic representations of what he dubs low materialism. Phenomenology, Gasché argues, thus paves the way for a new science of phantasms      Questioning Judaism Jacques Derrida, Elisabeth Weber, 2004 This volume presents the meditations of seven well known French thinkers on the special relations of their own intellectual pursuit to Judaism
