Out at Work Kitty Krupat, Patrick McCreery, 2001-01-01 Comprises 20 papers Presents an anecdotal view of attempts by gay lesbian bisexual and transgender workers to be accorded workers rights and to unionize Out at Work Kitty Krupat, Patrick McCreery, 2001-01-01 Comprises 20 papers Presents an anecdotal view of attempts by gay lesbian bisexual and transgender workers to be accorded workers rights and to unionize Sexual Orientation at Work Fiona Colgan, Nick Rumens, 2014-06-13 Sexual Orientation at Work Contemporary Issues and Perspectives brings together contemporary international research on sexual orientation and draws out its implications for lesbian gay bisexual trans and heterosexual employees and managers It provides new empirical and theoretical insights into sexual orientation employment discrimination and equality work in countries such as South Africa Turkey Australia Austria Canada US and the UK This book is novel in its focus on how sexual orientation intersects with other aspects of difference such as age class ethnicity and disability It adopts new theoretical perspectives e g queer theory to analyze the rise of new gay friendly organizations and examines important methodological issues in collecting socio economic data about sexual minorities Providing an accessible account of key issues and perspectives on sexual orientation in the workplace Sexual Orientation at Work caters to a wide range of readers across business feminist and LGBT Queer Studies fields The Advocate, 2003-06-10 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States Transgender Marxism Jules Joanne Gleeson, Elle O'Rourke, 2021-05-20 The first collection of its kind Transgender Marxism is a provocative and groundbreaking union of transgender studies and Marxist theory Exploring trans lives and movements the authors delve into the experience of surviving as transgender under capitalism They explore the pressures oppression and state persecution faced by trans people living in capitalist societies their tenuous positions in the workplace and the home and give a powerful response to right wing scaremongering against gender ideology Reflecting on the relations between gender and labour these essays reveal the structure of antagonisms faced by gender non conforming people within society Looking at the history of transgender movements Marxist interventions into developmental theory psychoanalysis and workplace ethnography the authors conclude that for trans liberation capitalism must be abolished The Next Upsurge Dan Clawson, 2018-08-06 The U S labor movement may be on the verge of massive growth according to Dan Clawson He argues that unions don t grow slowly and incrementally but rather in bursts Even if the AFL CIO could organize twice as many members per year as it now does it would take thirty years to return to the levels of union membership that existed when Ronald Reagan was elected president In contrast labor membership more than quadrupled in the years from 1934 to 1945 For there to be a new upsurge Clawson asserts labor must fuse with social movements concerned with race gender and global justice The new forms may create a labor movement that breaks down the boundaries between union and community or between work and family issues Clawson finds that this is already happening in some parts of the labor movement labor has endorsed global justice and opposed war in Iraq student activists combat sweatshops unions struggle for immigrant rights Innovative campaigns of this sort Clawson shows create new strategies determined by workers rather than union organizers that redefine the very meaning of the labor movement The Next Upsurge presents a range of examples from attempts to replace macho unions with more feminist models to campaigns linking labor and community issues and attempts to establish cross border solidarity and a living wage

Gender, Diversity and Trade Unions Fiona Colgan, Sue Ledwith, 2003-09-02 The pressures of globalization and diversity are increasingly requiring organizations to rethink their priorities and methods In this collection leading researchers examine the debates and developments on gender diversity and democracy in trade unions in eleven countries Offering an authoritative basis for comparative analysis this book is essential reading for researchers teachers trade unionists and students of industrial relations and equal opportunities along with all those concerned with ensuring that modern organizations reflect and represent the needs and concerns of a diverse workforce

A New Protestant Labor Ethic at Work Ken Estey, 2011-01-01 Estey proposes a labor ethic that emphasizes the protest in Protestantism The purpose of this ethic is to interrupt the drudgery of the Protestant work ethic which Estey asserts is the dominant cultural ideal in the U S Protestantism must not be about capitulation to capitalism and a Protestant ethic that works must be one that questions and confronts authority in order to undo the newest and oldest forms of dehumanization as they pertain to workers labor issues and conditions in the workplace

Capitalist Family Values Polly Reed Myers, 2015-09-01 Analyzes the ways in which gender roles are institutionalized in Boeing s workplace culture as well as the contributing policy shifts economic changes and social controversies present in American business culture

The Twilight of Equality? Lisa Duggan, 2012-04-03 By now we ve all heard about the shocking redistribution of wealth that s occurred during the last thirty years and particularly during the last decade But economic changes like this don t occur in a vacuum they re always linked to politics The Twilight of Equality searches out these links through an analysis of the politics of the 1990s the decade when neoliberalism free market economics became gospel After a brilliant historical examination of how racial and gender inequities were woven into the very theoretical underpinnings of the neoliberal model of the state Duggan shows how these inequities play out today In a series of political case studies Duggan reveals how neoliberal goals have been pursued demonstrating that progressive arguments that separate identity politics and economic policy cultural politics and affairs of state can only fail Ultimately The Twilight of Equality not only reveals how the highly successful rhetorical maneuvers of neoliberalism have functioned but more importantly it shows a way to revitalize and unify progressive politics in the U S today

Deregulating Desire Ryan Patrick Murphy, 2016-10-14 In 1975 National Airlines was shut down for 127 days when flight attendants went on strike to protest long hours and low pay Activists at National and many other U S airlines sought to win political power and material resources for people who live beyond the boundary of the traditional family In Deregulating Desire Ryan Patrick Murphy a former flight attendant himself chronicles the efforts of single women unmarried parents lesbians and gay men as well as same sex couples to make the airline industry a crucible for social change in the decades after 1970 Murphy situates the flight attendant union movement in the history of debates about family and work Each chapter offers an economic and a cultural analysis to show how the workplace has been the primary venue to enact feminist and LGBTQ politics From the political economic consequences of activism to the dynamics that facilitated the rise of what Murphy calls the family values economy to the Airline Deregulation Act of 1978 Deregulating Desire emphasizes the enduring importance of social justice for flight attendants in the twenty first century New Labor Forum ,2006 Students Against Sweatshops Liza Featherstone,United Students Against Sweatshops,2002-06-17 This short punchy book is both a record of a new mass campaign and a tool for the realization of its goals The students demand one thing that clothing bearing university logos must be produced under healthy safe and fair working conditions The Expanding Boundaries of Black Politics Georgia A.
