The Shadow Benito Pérez Galdós,1980 Anselmo marries a young woman Elena and his love for her causes his already unstable senses to feverishly work overtime He imagines the figure of Paris from a very sensual painting of Helen of Troy and Paris disappears from the canvas He also imagines hearing a male voice in Elena s room and upon his approach what sounds like fleeing footsteps In a rage Anselmo breaks open the door to her room He finds nothing and notices the window is closed and the interior door is locked The fright to his wife though was very real A second occurrence of hearing voices in his wife s room causes him to intrude again but this time he thinks he sees a shadow escape through the window Anselmo follows the shadow into the garden Thinking he sees the figure hiding in the well he spends all evening filling it up with rocks Anselmo feels tortured by betrayal but a few days later in his bedroom the shadow takes corporeal form as Paris from the painting They hold conversations that depress the doctor driving him mad with the realization that he will never shake such a being so he challenges Paris to a duel Even though Anselmo s shot would be deadly to a mortal Paris lives Anselmo has the being brought to his bedroom and they continue to hold conversations heightening the husband s shame at the loss of his honor

The Historical Novel in Nineteenth-Century Europe Brian Hamnett, 2011-11-24 Even at the height of its popularity in the early nineteenth century the historical novel faced criticism at many levels After its predominance in the 1810s and 1820s writers and historians shunned it as a travesty of their respective disciplines Even so the historical novel has frequently attracted a wide-ranging public right up to the present day Brian Hamnett examines key novels by authors including Scott Balzac Manzoni Dickens Eliot Flaubert Fontane Galdós and Tolstoy revealing the contradictions inherent in this form of fiction and exposing the challenges writers faced in attempting to represent a reality that linked past and present He argues that the historical novel in the nineteenth century was a common European phenomenon with considerable interconnection of themes and periods Accordingly the book ranges from the British Isles and France through the Germanic territories Italy and Spain to the Russian Empire identifying the different objectives and phases of the historical novel Although historical novels did appear in the two previous centuries the form came to maturity in the nineteenth century a consequence of the developing nature of history as a discipline distinct from literature and philosophy and the increasing primacy of the novel for writers and the reading public Yet the frontiers between history and literature remained blurred and the two disciplines continued to influence one another as each sought a faithful representation of human experience A

The Reframing of Realism Hazel Gold, 1993 In the writing of Benito P rez Gald s Spain s most prolific and innovative nineteenth century novelist Hazel Gold finds the act of framing insistently at work By exploring Gald s s methods of structuring and evaluating literary and historical experience Gold illuminates the novelist s art and uncovers the far reaching narratological social and epistemological implications of his framing strategies A close look at Gald s s novels reveals the artist at pains to contain and interpret what he perceived to be the distinctive and often disheartening experience of bourgeois liberalism of his day Looking beyond text to context Gold examines the ways in which Gald s s work itself has been framed by readers and critics in accordance with changing allegiances to contemporary literary theory and the canon The highly ambiguous status of the frame in Gald s s fiction confirms the author s own signal position as a writer poised at the limits between realism and modernity The Cambridge Companion to the Spanish Novel Harriet Turner, Adelaida

López de Martínez, 2003-09-11 The Cambridge Companion to the Spanish Novel presents the development of the modern Spanish novel from 1600 to the present Drawing on the combined legacies of Don Quijote and the traditions of the picaresque novel these essays focus on the question of invention and experiment on what constitutes the singular features of evolving fictional forms It examines how the novel articulates the relationships between history and fiction high and popular culture art and ideology and gender and society Contributors highlight the role played by historical events and cultural contexts in the elaboration of the Spanish novel which often takes a self conscious stance toward literary tradition Topics covered include the regional novel women writers and film and literature This companionable survey which includes a chronology and guide to further reading conveys a vivid sense of the innovative techniques of the Spanish novel and of the debates surrounding it Galdos, Nineteenth Century Spanish Literature Mary Washington College,1974 Inferno Benito Pérez Galdós,1997-06 The Unknown Benito Pérez Galdós,1991 The Unknown 1889 is Galdos first and only totally epistolary novel The narrator writing to a friend in the country tells of Madrid s politics society amours characters and crimes This translation of the text seeks to retain Galdos humour and sarcasm on the society and people he knew so well A Translation of "Angel Guerra" by Benito Perez Galdós Benito Pérez Galdós,1990 This translation reveals the complex interplay of Spanish history politics and European literary influences that characterize the many works of Perez Galdos An introduction investigates the philosophical influences especially Krausism in his realist novels Reality Benito Pérez Galdós,1992 Reality Realidad is the second of Galdos paired novels which tell the same story from two very different perspectives and through two very different narrative structures The first The Unknown was an epistolary novel Reality presented here in English is wholly theatrical and dramatized an intriguing and for its time 1889 very innovative standpoint It was later reworked into a proper drama acclaimed by publics and critics alike The Jew in the Novels of Benito Perez Galdos Sara E.
