Religion, Law and Intolerance in Indonesia Tim Lindsey,Helen Pausacker,2016-05-20 Despite its overwhelmingly Muslim majority Indonesia has always been seen as exceptional for its diversity and pluralism In recent years however there has been a rise in majoritarianism with resurgent Islamist groups pushing hard to impose conservative values on public life in many cases with considerable success This has sparked growing fears for the future of basic human rights and in particular the rights of women and sexual and ethnic minority groups There have in fact been more prosecutions of unorthodox religious groups since the fall of Soeharto in 1998 than there were under the three decades of his authoritarian rule Some Indonesians even feel that the pluralism they thought was constitutionally guaranteed by the national ideology the Pancasila is now under threat This book contains essays exploring these issues by prominent scholars lawyers and activists from within Indonesia and beyond offering detailed accounts of the political and legal implications of rising resurgent Islamism in Indonesia Examining particular cases of intolerance and violence against minorities it also provides an account of the responses offered by a weak state that now seems too often unwilling to intervene to protect vulnerable minorities against rising religious intolerance The First Woman in the Republic Carolyn L. Karcher,1994 This definitive biography restores to the public an eloquent writer and reformer who embodied the best of the American democratic heritage

Perspectives on Countering Extremism Shashi Jayakumar,2023-02-09 The study of violent extremism has seen a great deal of academic and practitioner focus on the processes of radicalization and strategies to counter and de radicalize extremists Comparatively little has been written on the subject of Diversion early upstream interventions aimed at deflecting individuals from a pathway of radicalization This volume addresses this gap in scholarship by analyzing the strategies being deployed worldwide aimed at diverting or deflecting individuals and communities from the path of radicalization Disengagement which is often necessary when one has already progressed past the at risk stage is also addressed given that social workers counselors and other practitioners do not necessarily find the distinction between the two a critical issue in practice What matters is which upstream approaches work and what shows promise amongst individuals and communities Case studies range across the Global North and South presented by both academics and practitioners Contributions address approaches that have proven useful strategies which should be given deeper scrutiny
