Common Threads Adele Flood,2014-10-16 Common Threads explores ideas of artistic identity and memory contained within the narrated stories of ten textile artists It reveals how individuals bring a sense of linearity to fragments of memory and create a cohesive sense of self through telling their life s story By employing a systems model the author constructs new ideas of interrogating identity and art practice The model Constructing Personal Narratives brings into focus the hermeneutic circle of learning and identifies the importance and need to provide opportunities for lifelong learning The stories told by the participants who returned to the formal education sector later in life reveal the profound effects adult learning had upon their lives The writer reveals how the model generated the interview questions that provided the rich biographical content that emerged within dialogues The common threads of experience and feelings of the ten participants and the author are revealed and from these emerge deepened understandings of both the place of stories within our lives and how stories can further an understanding of what it means to be an artist Emerging from these stories are implications for teaching practice these are presented as observations and questions in terms of how educators should be part of the learning experience with those they educate Fluorescent Dreams Mary Bowar,2017-05-03

Fluorescent Dreams is a story about Jenny who has daydreams for her mental illness The story is twofold similar to The Wizard of Oz The fantasies unfold throughout the novel separate from a pleasant story of a wife and mother that runs parallel to the fantasies Jenny Sagal moves her family from Chicago to a quaint town in Kentucky planning to raise her two boys in an old fashioned way Jenny discovers through daydreaming that an entity called Ludicrous Lucifer and his Island Voodoo Gang are set to capture Jenny Part I is set in Krack Krackle the magical town south of Chicago Part II changes the setting to a green door asylum called The Winnipeg Health Hotel Part III takes place inside the Trans Home because Jenny will have to reside there for one year after her release from the asylum owned by Ludicrous Lucifer and his Island Voodoo Gang Part IV describes a playful fun day ahead for Jenny She meets a savant man named Monty falling in love with him Jennys final fluorescent dream in Part IV is a bold sparkling beautiful dream leaving the reader to decide if it did come true Childhood Dreams Susan Bennett Gallagher,1989-01-01
