Race And Class On Campus Conversations With Ricardos Daughter:

Race & Class on Campus Jay Rochlin, 1997 Racism Is it alive and well and living on college campuses across the United States Is it a factor in high dropout rates and other crises affecting minority college students and if so how Are controversial programs of affirmative action proving to be a solution or are they part of the problem Here are some insights into the hot issues sparking debate over equal opportunity and American education In these pages through the use of a fictional character author Jay Rochlin presents more than forty very real African American and Mexican American men and women who struggled to earn degrees at a large nationally recognized university in the west Their goals their gains and their disappointments echo the experiences of millions of others around the country during much of the twentieth century Perhaps most important their true stories will provide inspiration to the many young people who wonder whether pursuing the dream of a college education is possible for them Readers will warm to the words of Carlos V ez Ib ez learning as a toddler from his father that the university represented toda la sabidur a del mundo all the wisdom in the world Their hearts will go out to young Laura Banks barred as a black woman from a whites only pool and the swimming class required for her degree in physical education In the face of open hostility and closed doors these students and many others persevered When they were shunned by Anglo social clubs they created their own When they were assigned back of the room seating because of discrimination they rose above it And when their ultimate goal graduation was threatened by racism they fought it Looking back many in the book remember coming from poor families who nonetheless considered themselves middle class and as such simply expected their children to go to college This family support bolstered by the students own drive ambition and sense of responsibility seemed to be pivotal to their success Thus the book comes out strongly on the side of critical race theorists who emphasize individual effort as a means of combating racism and personal narratives as a way of analyzing the complex issue These pages are filled with the voices of everyday men and women Their language is straightforward and from the heart Their message is timely in the midst of current debates over race class and affirmative action And their words for American education and for the country as a whole carry force and meaning guaranteed to reach far into the future

Blacks in the American West and Beyond--America, Canada, and Mexico George H. Junne, 2000-05-30 Almost a century before their arrival in the English New World Blacks appeared alongside the Spanish in what is now the American West Through their families communities and institutions these Western Blacks left behind a long history which is just now beginning to receive systematic scholarly treatment Comprehensively indexing a variety of research materials on Blacks in the North American West Junne offers an invaluable navigational tool for students of American and African American history Entries are organized both geographically and topically and cover a broad range of subjects including cross cultural interaction health art and law Contains a complete compilation of African American newspapers Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 1997 Black Women Undergraduates, Cultural Capital, and College Success Cerri A. Banks, 2009 This book documents the academic and social success of Black women undergraduates as they negotiate dominant educational and social discourses about their schooling lives Starting with the premise that Black women undergraduates are not a homogenous group and that they are being successful in college in greater numbers than Black men this book examines the ways they navigate being traditionally underprepared academically for college the discourse of acting white and oppressive classroom settings and practices This work expands the theoretical concept of cultural capital by identifying the abundant and varied forms of cultural capital that Black women undergraduates provide develop and utilize as they make their way through college The discussion of their raced classed and gendered experiences challenges the academy to make use of this understanding in its work towards educational equity This movement has wide reaching implications for ethos policy and practice in higher education Arizona Journal of Hispanic Cultural Studies ,1997 The Quest for Tejano Identity in San Antonio, Texas, 1913-2000 Richard Buitron,2012-11-12 The Quest for Tejano Identity was written as a study of Mexican American consciousness and a history of the assumptions and intellectual responses of Mexican Americans in south Texas The work uses history to inquire why different ethnic groups think act and speak as they do as they encounter American society Social Justice ,2002 Lingua Franca ,1996 Journal of the Southwest ,1997 Boletin Internacional de Bibliografia Sobre Educacion ,1998 The Publishers Weekly ,2000 SIROW ,1990 Gendered Citizenships K. Caldwell,R. Ramirez,K. Coll,T. Fisher,L. Siu,2009-12-07 Drawing on ethnographic research with underrepresented communities in the Caribbean Europe South America and the United States this wide ranging anthology examines the gendered dimensions of citizenship experiences and uses them as a point of departure for rethinking contemporary practices of social inclusion and national belonging The Cumulative Book Index ,1997 A world list of books in the English language MultiCultural Review ,1997 AB Bookman's Weekly ,1997 Bibliographic Guide to Black Studies Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture,1997 American Book Publishing Record ,1997 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997 Books in Print Supplement ,2002
