Earnest Games Carl Lindahl,1989-09-22 In Ernest Games Carl Lindahl recovers a folkloric world long hidden from readers of Chaucer Lindahl is the first critic to demonstrate how the poem reflects the social and artistic patterns of medieval folk performance Combining current approaches from the fields of literary criticism social history and folklore Earnest Games begins with a study of Chaucer's setting and characters Lindahl discovers that Chaucer gives each community the gentils the churls and the pilgrims a game strategy that faithfully reflects the social realities of the English Middle Ages Quill & Quire,2002

How Arts Education Makes a Difference Josephine Fleming,Robyn Gibson,Michael Anderson,2015-12-22 This book presents ground breaking research on the ways the Arts fosters motivation and engagement in both academic and non academic domains It reports on mixed method international research that investigated how the Arts make a difference in the lives of young people Drawing on the findings of a longitudinal quantitative study led by the internationally renowned educational psychologist Andrew Martin the book examines the impact of arts involvement in the academic outcomes of 643 students and reports on the in depth qualitative research that investigates what constitutes best practice in learning and teaching in the Arts The book also examines drama dance music visual arts and film classrooms to construct an understanding of quality pedagogy in these classrooms With its evidence based but highly accessible approach this book will be directly and immediately relevant to those interested in the Arts as a force for change in schooling How Arts Education Makes a Difference discusses The Arts Education Motivation Engagement and Achievement Research Visual Arts Drama and Music in Classrooms Technology mediated Arts Engagement International Perspectives on Arts and Cultural Policies in Education This book is a timely collation of research and experiential findings which support the need to promote arts education in schools worldwide It will be particularly useful for educationists researchers in education and arts advocates St. Jacob's Antwerp Art and Counter Reformation in Rubens's Parish Church Jeffrey Muller,2016-05-23 Of more than forty churches that fortified Antwerp as the bulwark of the Counter Reformation in the Netherlands only St Jacob's stands now with its art and archives intact Parish church of the city's elite it is filled with masterpieces including the altarpiece that Rubens painted for his own burial chapel Works of architecture painting sculpture and hundreds of sacred objects documented by the archives enable a reconstruction of the integral role that art played in the transformation of a whole society over the span of two centuries from 1585 to the 1790s It is a history of real people and organizations who used art for religion politics and social purpose joined together in a church that embodied a diverse community

The Aesthetics of Image and Cultural Form Yi Chen, 2024-04-24 Offering an alternative mode of visual cultural analysis to the prevalent discursive model this book proposes to situate analysis of Image within formal analyses of culture experience Specifically the discussion draws on theories of affective aesthetics with the view of addressing the sensual form of culture i e cultural form Therefore the volume puts forward a mode of formalist analysis in visual cultural research which takes purchase on the idea of cultural form A continuum of formalist attention between Image analysis visual media industrial design and probing of cultural forms establishes the theoretical underpinning of the book These concepts are expounded through a case study which looks at formal experimentations and debates arising from 1960s avant garde artistic practices in London
