His youth was a struggle to exist under the German occupation and in combating the depravation of poverty Added to these hardships was the ongoing personal battle he fought daily in accepting the doctrines of the Roman Catholic Church which were heavily imposed on him by the uncompromising adult belief of the time His authoritarian father loaded with the responsibility of caring for the large family was staunch in upholding his strong principles and instilling them into his children Of a less serious nature and with a strong desire to be free of the bonds restricting him from freedom of expression and thought Rem was often on the punitive end of the discipline rod both at school and home Opposing this oppression was the endless love and compassion of his mother who through the strength of her faith was able to engulf the whole family under her mantle of love and bind them together into a caring family unit At a young age Rem had to begin work to help support the family What he was expected to do for a few cents per week was beyond the capability of this small undernourished lad His father insisted on strength of character and allowed him to be pushed to the limit of his endurance Held by the love of his family but tormented with the urge to be free of restrictions Rem finally took his life in his own hands At the age of sixteen driven by the spirit of adventure he left home and joined the merchant navy His first voyage was on a whaling ship to the South Pole which was followed by voyages throughout the world for the next few years On sailing into his first Australian port his desire to stay in Australia took over He jumped ship and went inland where he took a job on the railway After six months as gang worker he was finally picked up by the law and experienced a short jail sentence before being deported back to Holland His love for Australia was strong and within two years he returned as a legal migrant and still lives in his beloved land today

Copyright Office,1978 A Look Through My Eyes Tyina Sharp Hopkins,2020-12-18 UNEXPLAINABLE GHOST EXPERIENCES When we reflect over our lives there are pivotal experiences that we keep in our memory Some are good some are bad but there is something about the experience that sticks to our memory banks as if the memory happened yesterday We all have these memories and in some strange way we store these images in our minds and catalog the emotion This journey starts when I was about five years old That s when I started experiencing ghosts paranormal supernatural and continues into the present day Most of my experiences were shared with other people in my family I realize now the importance of sharing these experiences so that other people can relate learn and grow from mutual experiences As I began to write this work I would share the many episodes with my family Some we laughed about others we hope we never go through again but the unanimous consent was that everyone still to this day could remember each event We all had have a different perspective but despite our many views many questions remain the same Some like where these spirits good or did they intend to do harm These questions will be left up to you My goal is to share what I have lived with my entire life My hope is that as I present the chapters of these experiences so that we might learn Lost and Found Srishti Bagh,2021-02-26 Lost and Found is a collection of poems short stories and open letters written by emerging authors from all over India Every writer has inked their own views in a way that you ll feel inspired happy and also experience the impact of words on human emotions A pen is mightier than the sword This anthology best describes this phrase as our co authors have used their power of communicating with words to express their fantasies and imaginations The main reason behind the publication of this book is to create love and awareness towards English Literature in our new generation and to provide a platform for all budding writers to showcase their talent
