Non-literary Fiction Esther Gabara,2022-12-06
Explores a new form of fiction that emerged in late twentieth century visual art across the Americas With Non literary Fiction Esther Gabara examines how contemporary art produced across the Americas has reacted to the rising tide of neoliberal regimes focusing on the crucial role of fiction in daily politics Gabara argues that these fictions depart from familiar literary narrative structures and emerge in the new mediums and practices that have revolutionized contemporary art Each chapter details how fiction is created through visual art forms in performance and body art posters mail art found objects and installations For Gabara these fictions comprise a type of art that asks viewers to collaborate in the creation of the work and helps them to withstand the brutal restrictions imposed by dominant neoliberal regimes During repressive regimes of the 1960s and 1970s and free trade agreements of the 1990s artists and critics consistently said no to economic privatization political deregulation and reactionary social logic as they rejected inherited notions of visual literary and political representation Through close analyses of artworks and writings by leading figures of these two generations including Indigenous thinkers Gabara shows how negation allows for the creation of fiction outside textual forms of literature

Rubén Darío and the Romantic Search for Unity Cathy L. Jade, 2014-07-03. Modernism was the major Spanish American literary movement of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Leader of that influential movement was Rubén Darío, the Nicaraguan now recognized as one of the most important Hispanic poets of all time. Like the Romantics in England and the Symbolists on the Continent, Darío and other Modernists were strongly influenced by occultist thought. But as the poet Octavio Paz has written, academic criticism has preferred to close its eyes to the stream of occultism that runs throughout Darío's work. This silence damages our comprehension of his poetry. Cathy Login Jade's groundbreaking study corrects this critical oversight. Her work clearly demonstrates that esoteric tradition is central to Modernism and that an understanding of this centrality clarifies both the nature of the movement and its relationship to earlier European literature After placing Modernism in a broad historical and literary perspective Jade examines the impact of esoteric beliefs upon Dar o s view of the world and the role of poetry in it Through detailed and insightful analyses of key poems she explores the poet s quest for solutions to the nineteenth century crisis of belief The movement that Ruben Dar o headed brought Hispanic poetry into the mainstream of the modern tradition with its sense of fragmentation and alienation and its hope for integration and reconciliation with nature Rub n Dar o and the Romantic Search for Unity enriches our understanding of that movement and the work of its leading poet Brazilian Literature as World Literature Eduardo F. Coutinho, 2018-02-22 Brazilian Literature as World Literature is not only an introduction to Brazilian literature but also a study of the connections between Brazil s literary production and that of the rest of the world particularly European and North American literatures It highlights the tension that has always existed in Brazilian literature between the imitation of European models and forms and a yearning for a tradition of its own as well as the attempts by modernist writers to propose possible solutions such as aesthetic cannibalism to overcome this tension Beyond Human Tara Daly, 2019-02-15 In the Andes indigenous knowledge systems based on the relationships between different beings both earthly and heavenly animal and plant have been central to the organization of knowledge since precolonial times The legacies of colonialism and the continuance of indigenous cultures make the Andes a unique place from which to think about art and social change as ongoing and as encompassing more than an exclusively human perspective Beyond Human revises established readings of the avant gardes in Peru and Bolivia as humanizing and historical By presenting fresh readings of canonical authors like C sar Vallejo Jos Mar a Arguedas and Magda Portal and through analysis of newer artist activists like Julieta Paredes Mujeres Creando Comunidad and Alejandra Dorado Daly argues instead that avant gardes complicate questions of agency and contribute to theoretical discussions on vital materialisms the idea that life happens between animate and inanimate beings human and non human and is made sensible through art Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press Severo Sarduy and the Neo-baroque Image of Thought in the Visual Arts Rolando Perez, 2012 Severo Sarduy never enjoyed the same level of notoriety as did other Latin American writers On the other hand he never lacked for excellent critical interpretations of his work from critics like Roberto Gonz lez Echevarra Ren c Prieto Gustavo Guerrero and other reputable scholars Missing however from what is otherwise an impressive body of critical commentary is a study of the importance of painting and architecture first to his theory and second to his creative work In order to fill this lacuna in Sarduy studies Rolando P c rez s book undertakes a critical approach to Sarduy s essays Barroco Escrito sobre un cuerpo Barroco y neobarroco and La simulaci 3n from the stand point of art history In short no book on Sarduy until now has traced the multifaceted art historical background that informed the work of this challenging and exciting writer It will be a book that many a critic of Sarduy and the Latin American baroque will consult
