America's Last Vietnam Battle Dale Andradé,2000-12-31 In the spring of 1972 North Vietnam launched a massive military offensive designed to deliver the coup de grace to South Vietnam and its rapidly disengaging American ally But an overconfident Hanoi misjudged its opponents who led by American military advisers and backed by American airpower were able to hold off the North's onslaught in what became the biggest battle of a very long war Dale Andrade rescues this epic engagement from its previous neglect to tell a riveting tale of heroism against great odds Originally published in cloth in 1995 as Trial by Fire and drawing upon recent Vietnamese language sources this new paperback edition will finally allow a true classic on the war to reach the wide readership it deserves One Man Against the World Tim Weiner, 2015-06-16 Draws on recently declassified documents to chronicle Nixon's presidency presenting a portrait of a brilliant man overcome by his deep insecurities and his distrust of his cabinet Congress and the American people Unheralded Victory Mark Woodruff, 2005-10-25 Along with a half million other young men Mark Woodruff put his life on the line to serve his country in Vietnam Like so many others he returned home to find himself regarded not as a hero but as a humiliating reminder of the only war the United States ever lost This Marine however is determined to set the record straight Woodruff never wavers from the cold hard facts in this riveting book Battle by battle Unheralded Victory provides incontrovertible proof that the United States won this war from the vaunted 1968 Tet Offensive in reality a shattering defeat that decimated the Viet Cong to Linebacker II the final knockout blow that forced North Vietnam to the table Make no mistake our warriors in Vietnam were victorious It's time America sat up and took notice

Mass Mobilization in the Democratic Republic of Vietnam, 1945-1960 Alec Holcombe, 2020-04-30 Immediately after its founding by H Ch Minh in September 1945 the Democratic Republic of Vietnam DRV faced challenges from rival Vietnamese political organizations and from a France determined to rebuild her empire after the humiliations of WWII H with strategic genius courageous maneuver and good fortune was able to delay full scale war with France for sixteen months in the northern half of the country This was enough time for his Communist Party under the cover of its Vietminh front organization to neutralize domestic rivals and install the rough framework of an independent state That fledgling state became a weapon of war when the DRV and France finally came to blows in Hanoi during December of 1946 marking the official beginning of the First Indochina War With few economic resources at their disposal H and his comrades needed to mobilize an enormous and free contribution in manpower and rice from DRV controlled regions Extracting that contribution during the war's early days was primarily a matter of patriotic exhortation By the early 1950s however the infusion of weapons from the United States the Soviet Union and China had turned the Indochina conflict into a total war Hunger exhaustion and violence along with the conflict's growing political complexity challenged the DRV leaders mobilization efforts forcing patriotic appeals to be supplemented with coercion and terror This trend reached its revolutionary climax in late 1952 when H under strong pressure from Stalin and Mao agreed to carry out radical land reform in DRV controlled areas of northern Vietnam The regime's 1954 victory over the French at Dien Bien Phu the return of peace and the division of the country into North and South did not slow this process of socialist transformation Over the next six years 1954 1960 the DRV s Communist leaders raced through land reform and agricultural collectivization with a relentless sense of urgency Mass Mobilization in the Democratic Republic of Vietnam 1945 1960 explores the way the exigencies of war the dreams of Marxist Leninist ideology and the pressures of the Cold War environment combined with pride and patriotism to drive totalitarian state formation in northern Vietnam Vietnamese Source Materials concerning the 1827 Conflict between the Court of Siam and the Lao Principalities

1 Mayurī Ngaosivat,2001 Bombs, Cities, and Civilians Conrad C. Crane,1993 As the might and capabilities of American airpower have grown during the last 60 years so has the controversy about its use in the intentional and indiscriminate wartime bombardment of civilians In Bombs Cities and Civilians Conrad Crane maintains that for the most part American airmen in World War II remained committed to precision bombing doctrine Instead of attacking densely populated urban areas simply to erode civilian morale Army Air Forces adhered to a policy that emphasised targeting key industrial and military sites He demonstrates that while the British Germans and Japanese routinely conducted indiscriminate aerial bombardment of enemy cities American airmen consistently stayed with daylight raids against carefully selected targets especially in Europe Daytime precision missions were usually far more dangerous than night area attacks but such Army Air Forces tactics increased bombing efficiency and also reduced the risk of civilian casualties East European Accessions
