A Handbook on Counseling African American Women Kimber Shelton, Michelle King Lyn, Mahlet Endale, 2022-02-04. WINNER of the the 2023 Association for Women in Psychology Distinguished Publication Award. Through an intersectional and inclusive lens, this book provides mental health professionals with a detailed overview of the mental health issues that Black women face as well as the best approach to culturally competent psychological practice with Black women. This text details mental health needs and treatment interventions for Black women. It provides a historical context of how the lived experiences of Black women contribute to mental wellness, identifies effective psychological practices in working with Black women and challenges readers to advance their cultural competence while providing culturally affirming care to Black women. Additionally, this text is inclusive of sexual orientation and gender identity diversity and it honors the diversity within Black women's identities, relationships, roles and families. Written by an expert team of Black women clinicians, researchers and medical professionals.

A Handbook on Counseling African American Women: Psychological Symptoms, Treatments, and Case Studies addresses current sociopolitical events as well as historical trauma as it prepares readers to meet the needs of the Black women they serve.
