Narratives of Delusion in the Political Practice of the Labour Left 1931-1945 Roger Spalding, 2018-04-18 This book sets out a challenging re interpretation of the politics of Labour's left wing It shows how the Left developed a range of simplistic self sustaining narratives rather than supported analyses to guide its actions in the aftermath of the political crisis of 1931 This approach it is argued persisted down to the opening years of the present century its employment in part explaining the decline of the pre Corbyn Left The narratives developed by the Left reflected a belief in the existence of a working class waiting to be led in a radical direction The leading figures of the Left often had limited direct contact with working people but within their narratives the responses of their target audience were predictable and automatic The Left created an idealised working class that behaved as the Left wished In addition the book questions the popular view often enhanced by biographers of many of these Labour Left leaders

Reader's Guide to British History David Loades,2020-12-17 The Reader sGuide to British History is the essential source to secondary material on British history This resource contains over 1 000 A Z entries on the history of Britain from ancient and Roman Britain to the present day Each entry lists 6 12 of the best known books on the subject then discusses those works in an essay of 800 to 1 000 words prepared by an expert in the field The essays provide advice on the range and depth of coverage as well as the emphasis and point of view espoused in each publication

Eminent Parliamentarians Philip Norton,2012-10-22 To celebrate the centenary of the 1911 Parliament Act John Bercow Speaker of the House of Commons instigated a series of public lectures in which current parliamentarians assessed the careers and characters of parliamentary giants The result was a sequence of fascinating appraisals covering a distinguished but eclectic array of politicians who made a name for themselves not only in the House of Commons but also throughout the country The subjects of the lectures came from diverse backgrounds advocated very different political philosophies and indeed some make surprising bedfellows But they all had one thing in common driven by a set of particular beliefs they were prepared to do whatever was necessary in pursuit of their goals From Nicholas Soames s warm familial tribute to his grandfather Winston Churchill to Neil Kinnock s account of an affectionate though sometimes fraught relationship with Michael Foot the roll call of both lecturers and subjects is outstanding With his subject sitting in the audience Tristram Hunt delivers the lecture on Tony Benn Shirley Williams looks at the life of Nancy Astor the first woman to take her seat in Parliament Philip Norton and Peter Tapsell tackle the towering figures of Enoch Powell and F E Smith as an authority on his subject Kenneth Morgan discusses David Lloyd George while fellow historian Gordon Marsden speaks on Aneurin Bevan Douglas Hurd reflects on the life of Iain Macleod and Andrew Adonis and John Whittingdale both provide an insider s insight into the parliamentary lives of Roy Jenkins and Margaret Thatcher With a foreword by John Bercow and an introduction by Philip Norton this is an impressive collection of lectures delivered by expert speakers on the most eminent of parliamentarians

Dictionary of Labour Biography Keith Gildart,David Howell,2020-01-31 The Dictionary of Labour Biography has an outstanding reputation as a reference work for the study of nineteenth and twentieth century British history Volume XV maintains this standard of original and thorough scholarship Each entry is written by a specialist drawing on an array of primary and secondary sources The biographical essays engage with recent historiographical developments in the field of labour history The scope of the volume emphasises the ethnic and national diversity of the British labour movement and neglected political traditions

Making the Weather Vernon Bogdanor,2024-09-05 A study of six prominent postwar politicians in the United Kingdom Making the Weather is the story of six postwar politicians all of whom exerted an outsized influence on the political life of the United Kingdom an influence greater than that of most prime ministers Vernon Bogdanor's cast includes three from the political Left Aneurin Nye Bevan Roy Jenkins and Tony Benn and three from the Right Enoch Powell Keith Joseph and Nigel Farage Each study is a fascinating analysis examining how these men achieved such prominence and influence and how though very different figures in many ways they came to dominate the political landscape often for years Each of the six made fundamental contributions to the debate about Britain's future and to the vibrancy of British democracy From immigration to Europe from the National Health Service to devolution the issues and causes that brought these men to prominence are still relevant

GPs, Politics and Medical Professional Protest in Britain, 1880-1948 Chris Locke, 2023-11-08 This book charts the journey of British General Practitioners GPs towards professional self realisation through the development of a political consciousness manifested in a series of bruising encounters with government GPs are an essential part of the social fabric of modern Britain but as a group have always felt undervalued clashing with successive governments over the terms on which they offered their services to the public Explaining the background to these disputes and the motives of GPs from a sociological perspective this research casts new light on some defining moments in the creation of the modern British state from National Health Insurance to the National Health Service and the history of the British medical profession It examines these events from the point of view of the professionals intimately involved in and affected by them using both established sources like Ministry of Health records an in depth analysis of rarely studied records of professional bodies and previously unresearched archive material The result is a fascinating account of conflict and cooperation and of heroic and less than heroic defiance of political authority involving interactions between complex personalities and competing ideologies Scholarly yet readable this book will be of interest to the general reader as much as to medical practitioners and historians
