Pan-Africanism

By mid-1920s:

- Africans had decided that any plan for African progress had to be decided by Africans and directed from Africa
- turned to ideas about nationalism and national unity (see Lecture Feb. 3-5)

Panafricanism 2nd:

The African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights Volume 2 Nat Rubner, 2023 Landmark study of the African Charter on Human and Peoples Rights Documents on one side the international community's inability to foist a human rights system upon Africa and on the other the process within the OAU now African Union that eventually brought it into being and determined its content The African Charter on Human and Peoples Rights ACHPR which was proposed in 1979 adopted in 1981 and came into effect in 1986 was the first non Western declaration of human rights and the first official statement of an African human rights perspective With Africa largely absent in 1948 when the Universal Declaration of Human Rights UDHR was adopted it stands in stark historical reproach to the Western conception of universal human rights as a pivotal document in the decolonisation of the continent This book for the first time presents a comprehensive account of the development of the ACHPR which is key to a proper understanding of its fundamental nature Through documenting its process of construction it becomes possible to understand how Africans themselves understood the process and the issues involved and how the ACHPR became a political text asserted by African leaders and not a continuum of a so called universal human rights tradition The result is a radical repositioning of the underlying context of the ACHPR one of the most important documents in modern African history of how it came to be and how it should therefore be understood Volume 2 describes the process through which the ACHPR came into being Analysing the role of Western governments the UN and NGOs it shows that contrary to the prevailing view of African human rights commentators their influence was limited and at times counter productive That in fact the formulation of the ACHPR was a profoundly political process that was primarily a product of an African desire to instigate its own human rights perspective as a counter to the human rights universalism advanced by the Western post war human rights tradition The African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights [2 Volume Set] Nat Rubner, 2023 A landmark study of the African Charter on human and peoples rights one of the most important documents in modern African history that positions it within the African Lives Matter struggle to assert an African identity rather than as simply a human rights document This set describes its underlying African origins and how the principles of the OAU influenced its path and content Pan-Africanism Hakim Adi, 2018-08-23 The first survey of the Pan African movement this century this book provides a history of the individuals and organisations that have sought the unity of all those of African origin as the basis for advancement and liberation Initially an idea and movement that took root among the African Diaspora in more recent times Pan Africanism has been embodied in the African Union the organisation of African states which includes the entire African Diaspora as its sixth region Hakim Adi covers many of the key political figures of the 20th century including Du Bois Garvey Malcolm X Nkrumah and Gaddafi as well as Pan African culture expression from Ngrit to the wearing of the Afro hair style and the music of Bob Marley Pan-Africanism Tajudeen Abdul-Raheem, 1996-11 While the fate of Africa is much discussed in the West Westerners rarely hear the voices of Africans themselves in the debate over the future of this imperiled continent Pan Africanism aims to unite the many different peoples of Africa and the Diaspora in the West Indies Latin America the U S and the U K As a political movement Pan Africanism first found expression 100 years ago and has since then waxed and waned according to wars economic and political tides and the often fickle vicissitudes of Western influence Bringing together over a dozen influential writers political leaders and activists Pan Africanism defines what constitutes the movement as we approach the millennium By addressing such subjects as the role of science and technology in Africa's future and the potential for a Pan African women's movement the writers offer a valuable overview of the political economy of uniting across the continent and beyond at a time when the threat of recolonization looms large

African Political Thought G. Martin, 2012-12-23 Focusing on individual political thinkers and beginning with indigenous African political thought the book successively examines African nationalism African socialism populism and Marxism Africanism and pan Africanism concluding with contemporary perspectives on democracy development and the African state

Towards Pan-Africanism Stephen M. Magu, 2023-03-11 This book traces the development and impact of regional economic communities RECs in Africa and addresses a timely question do REC members and the REC itself positively influence member states' behaviors towards other members and more broadly regionally and continentally due to REC membership Changing member states' behaviors is measured across three interconnected fundamental dimensions of societal systems proposed by Marshall and Elzinga Marshall in CSP's Global Report 2017 These are i the persistence of conflict or its counterpoint achieving peace ii fostering democratization and better governance and iii achieving socio economic development and as proposed by this research a fourth dimension iv being active participants in multilateralism Is membership in a REC ultimately beneficial to the member and other countries in the region While there are no clear and obvious at least discernible traditional benefits such as increase in trade perhaps because Africa's overall trade relative to the world is about 3 percent there are other non trade benefits e.g. decrease in conflict coercion to take certain actions towards peace and refrain from others coups and wars presenting in REC member states These in actions abilities coercions exclusions and cooperation instances are outlined and discussed in the book

Islam in the African-American Experience, Second Edition Richard Brent Turner, 2003-11-20 Sure to become a classic in the field Highly recommended Library Journal full of surprises and intrigues and written in a beautiful style a breath of fresh air on the African Islamic American connection Journal of the American Academy of Religion The involvement of black Americans with Islam reaches back to the earliest days of the African presence in North America Part I of the book explores these roots in the Middle East West Africa and antebellum America Part II tells the story of the Prophets of the City the leaders of the new urban based African American Muslim movements in the 20th century Turner places the study of Islam in the context of the racial ethical and political relations that influenced the reception of successive presentations of Islam including the West African Islam of slaves the African American Settlements in West Africa A. Beyan,2005-09-16 John Brown Russwurm and African American Settlement in West Africa examines Russwurm's intellectual accomplishments and significant contributions to the black civil rights movement in America from 1826 1829 and more significantly explores the essential characteristics that distinguished his thoughts and endeavours from other black leaders in America Liberia and

Maryland in Liberia Not surprisingly the most controversial of Russwurm's ideas was his unwavering support of the American Colonization Society ACS and the Maryland State Colonization Society MSCS two organizations that most civil rights activists found racist and pro slavery Beyan probes the social and intellectual sources underlying motives and the legacies of Russwurm's thoughts and endeavours all in an attempt to dissect why Russwurm acted and made the choices that he did The Origins and Development of African Livestock Roger Blench, Kevin MacDonald, 2006-01-27 Of particular interest to those studying the history of the African continent this book takes its place as a standard reference in the field of livestock studies Constructing the East African Community Mariel Reiss, 2022-04-27 This book provides a systematic analysis of the establishment and decision making processes concerning the institutional design of the East African Community EAC throughout the 1990s and discusses to what extent these were impacted and inspired by other regional organizations from Africa and Europe Analysing the decision making processes that led to the set up of the EAC the book explores the extent to which they were impacted by several other regional organizations namely the Organization of African Unity OAU the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa COMESA the Southern African Development Community SADC the European Union EU and the first EAC The findings indicate that the relevant east African state and non state actors adopted substantial aspects from the first EAC the EU and the COMESA and adapted them to set up the current EAC This book demonstrates that the perception of other regional organizations and their institutional design considerably effected the construction of the EAC here its own past provided crucial learning objectives which challenges the notion of mimicry or replica regional organizations of the EU in the Global South This work will be of particular interest to scholars and students of regional and international organizations international relations multilevel governance approaches as well as diffusion literature The Cambridge History of Africa J. D. Fage, Roland Anthony Oliver, Michael Crowder, 1975 The eighth and final volume of The Cambridge History of Africa covers the period 1940-75 It begins with a discussion of the role of the Second World War in the political decolonisation of Africa Its terminal date of 1975 coincides with the retreat of Portugal the last European colonial power in Africa from its possessions and their accession to independence The fifteen chapters which make up this volume examine on both a continental and regional scale the extent to which formal transfer of political power by the European colonial rulers also involved economic social and cultural decolonisation A major theme of the volume is the way the African successors to the colonial rulers dealt with their inheritance and how far they benefited particular economic groups and disadvantaged others The contributors to this volume represent different disciplinary traditions and do not share a single theoretical perspective on the recent history of the continent a subject that is still the occasion for passionate debate
