American Airpower Comes of Age: General Henry H. "Hap" Arnold's World War II Diaries, Volume 1, American Airpower Comes of Age General Henry H. Arnold, 2004-10 This volume has richly enhanced General Henry H. Hap Arnold's reputation as the father of today's United States Air Force Major General John W. Huston himself an Army Air Forces combat veteran of the war has edited each of Arnold's World War II diaries and placed them in their historical context while explaining the problems Hap faced and evaluating the results of his travels General Huston a professional historian has taught at both the US Air Force Academy and the US Naval Academy A former Chief of the Office of Air Force History and an experienced researcher both here and abroad in the personal and official papers of the war's leaders he has been careful to let Hap speak for himself The result is an account of the four year odyssey that took Arnold to every continent but one as he took part in deliberations that involved Allied leaders in major diplomacy strategy meetings with Franklin D. Roosevelt Harry S. Truman Winston Churchill Josef Stalin Charles de Gaulle and Chiang Kai-shek At those meetings Hap recorded the comments of the various participants His 12 diaries contain his own thoughts which range from being lost over the Himalayas to comforting the wounded as they were airlifted from the Normandy beaches He experienced an air raid in London and viewed the carnage in recently liberated Manila Arnold recorded his honest impressions from private meetings with King George VI in Buckingham Palace to eating from mess kits with his combat crews in the North African desert all while perceptively commenting on the many issues involved and assessing the people the culture and the surroundings This volume offers the best assessment we have of Hap as he survived four wartime heart attacks and continued to work tirelessly for proper recognition of airpower It will also continue my emphasis while Chief of Staff of the US Air Force on encouraging professional reading through making historical accounts available to personnel of the finest air force in the world a success achieved in large part because of Hap Arnold Ronald R Fogleman General United States Air Force Retired

Act of Creation Stephen C Schlesinger, 2009-04-24 In Act of Creation Stephen C Schlesinger tells a pivotal and little known story of how Secretary of State Edward Stettinius and the new American President Harry Truman picked up the pieces of the faltering campaign initiated by Franklin Roosevelt to create a United Nations Using secret agents financial resources and their unrivaled position of power they overcame the intrigues of Stalin the reservations of wartime allies like Winston Churchill the discontent of smaller states and a skeptical press corps to found the United Nations The author reveals how the UN nearly collapsed several times during the conference over questions of which states should have power who should be admitted and how authority should be divided among its branches By shedding new light on leading participants like John Foster Dulles John F Kennedy Adlai Stevenson Nelson Rockefeller and E B White Act of Creation provides a fascinating tale of twentieth century history not to be missed

The Golden Thirteen Dan Goldberg, 2020-05-19 The inspiring story of the 13 courageous Black men who integrated the U S Navy during World War II leading desegregation efforts across America and anticipating the civil rights movement Featuring previously unpublished material from the U S Navy this little known history of forgotten civil rights heroes uncovers the racism within the military and the fight to serve Through oral histories and original interviews with surviving family members Dan Goldberg brings thirteen forgotten heroes away from the margins of history and into the spotlight He reveals the opposition these men faced the racist pseudo science the regular condescension the repeated epithets the verbal abuse and even violence Despite these immense challenges the Golden Thirteen persisted understanding the power of integration the opportunities for black Americans if they succeeded and the consequences if they failed Until 1942 black men in the Navy could hold jobs only as cleaners and cooks The Navy reluctantly decided to select the first black men to undergo officer training in 1944 after enormous pressure from ordinary citizens and civil rights leaders These men segregated and sworn to secrecy worked harder than they ever had in their lives and ultimately passed their exams with the highest average of any class in Navy history In March 1944 these sailors became officers the first black men to wear the gold stripes Yet even then their fight wasn't over white men refused to salute them refused to eat at their table and refused to accept that black men could be superior to them in rank Still the Golden Thirteen persevered determined to hold their heads high and set an example that would inspire generations to come In the vein of Hidden Figures The Golden Thirteen reveals the contributions of heroes who were previously lost to history

The Papers of Adlai E. Stevenson.

Adlai E. Stevenson, 1973      Books and Pamphlets, Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1973      The Secret Coalition Gary A. Donaldson, 2014-09-30 The politics of the 1950s revolved around two primary leaders one Republican and one Democrat both moderate and both willing to compromise to move the nation forward The Republican leader was President Dwight Eisenhower His two administrations changed American politics Ike's desire to be president of all the people to run his administration down the middle of the road to be a modern Republican set the stage for what the Republican Party would be for decades to come His politics of moderation triggered a backlash from the party's right wing that eventually grew into a conservative surge that reached fruition in the following decades Standing astride the opposition was the Democratic leader in the Senate Lyndon Johnson At age 44 Johnson was the youngest leader in Senate history His willingness to join forces with Eisenhower in the president's battles against isolationism and reaction in his own party along with the willingness of both men to compromise rather than engage in a politics of search and destroy turned the 1950s into an era of political moderation In The Secret Coalition Gary A Donaldson insightfully explores a period in U S history that many Americans regard as an Era of Good Feeling when the two parties got along and the nation achieved some sort of equilibrium and cooperation      Catalogue of Title-entries of Books and Other Articles Entered in the Office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington, Under the Copyright Law ...
