Politics In The Impasse:

Democratic Philosophy and the Politics of Knowledge Richard T. Peterson, 2010-11-01     A Place More Void Paul Kingsbury, Anna J. Secor, 2021-02 A Place More Void takes its name from a scene in William Shakespeare's The Tragedy of Julius Caesar wherein an elderly soothsayer has a final chance to warn Caesar about the Ides of March. Worried that he won't be able to deliver his message because of the crowded alleyways, the soothsayer devises a plan to find and intercept Caesar in a place more void. It is precisely such an elusive place that this volume makes space for by theorizing and empirically exploring the many yet widely neglected ways in which the void permeates geographical thinking. This collection presents geography's most in-depth and sustained engagements with the void to date, demonstrating the extent to which related themes such as gaps, cracks, lacks, and emptiness perforate geography's fundamental concepts, practices, and passions. Arranged in four parts around the themes of Holes, Absences, Edges, and Voids, the contributions demonstrate the fecundity of the void for thinking across a wide range of phenomena from archives to alien abductions, caves to cryptids and vortexes to vanishing points. A Place More Void gathers established and emerging scholars who engage a wide range of geographical issues and who express themselves not only through archival, literary, and socio-scientific investigations but also through social and spatial theory, political manifesto, poetry, and performance art.

Signifiers and Acts Ed Pluth, 2012-02-01 In Signifiers and Acts, Ed Pluth examines Lacan's views on language and sexuality to argue that Lacan's theory of the subject is best read as a theory of freedom and agency, a theory that is especially compelling precisely because of its structuralist and seemingly antihumanist framework. Presenting new aspects of Lacan's work and commenting extensively on the important yet unpublished seminars that still make up the majority of his contribution to contemporary thought, the book aims to make a Lacanian intervention into contemporary theory. In addition to Saussure, Sartre, Derrida, Lacoue-Labarthe, and Nancy, Pluth discusses works in political theory and identity theory by Alain Badiou, Judith Butler, and Slavoj Žižek.

Global Manifestos for the Twenty-First Century Nicol A. Barria-Asenjo, Brian Willems, Slavoj Žižek, 2023-11-22 Bringing together over forty original short essays, some academic, others more creative in nature, this collection responds to the political, historical, social, and economic situation in which we find ourselves today. The editors argue that we are living in a repetition that must be stopped if our goal is that the signifier humanity remains in the following centuries; the time has come to work in the present. The objective is not to deliver precise or quick answers but to gather varied voices from different continents, bringing together different languages, ideas, practices, theories, thoughts, and desires. In the words of Yanis Varoufakis, urging us to become agents of a future that ends unnecessary mass suffering and inspire humanity to realise its potential for authentic freedom. To leave the concept of a manifesto open, the contradictory aspects of the chapters are a subject of the manifesto itself. This is a manifesto of contradictions that reflects our reality as well as our struggles and our aspirations. This unique anthology will appeal to students and scholars across the humanities and social sciences interested in critical theory and social change      Realism versus Global Arms Control and Disarmament Carmen Chas, 2025-07-15 This incisive book explores the limits of international law through arms control and disarmament treaties Carmen Chas critically engages with literature on disarmament and classical realist analysis bridging the divide between international law and international relations scholarship      Levinas and the Postcolonial John E Drabinski, 2013-03-31 The idea of the Other is central to both Levinas philosophy and to postcolonialism but they both apply the concept in different ways Now John Drabinski asks what we can learn from reading Levinas alongside postcolonial theories of difference      Aesthetic Revolutions and Twentieth-Century Avant-Garde Movements Aleš Erjavec, 2015-05-08 This collection examines key aesthetic avant garde art movements of the twentieth century and their relationships with revolutionary politics The contributors distinguish aesthetic avant gardes whose artists aim to transform society and the ways of sensing the world through political means from the artistic avant gardes which focus on transforming representation Following the work of philosophers such as Friedrich Schiller and Jacques Rancière the contributors argue that the aesthetic is inherently political and that aesthetic avant garde art is essential for political revolution In addition to analyzing Russian constructivism surrealism and Situationist International the contributors examine Italian futurism's model of integrating art with politics and life the murals of revolutionary Mexico and Nicaragua 1960s American art and the Slovenian art collective NSK's construction of a fictional political state in the 1990s Aesthetic Revolutions and Twentieth Century Avant Garde Movements traces the common foundations and goals shared by these disparate arts communities and shows how their art worked towards effecting political and social change Contributors John E Bowlt Sascha Bru David Craven Ale Erjavec Tyrus Miller Raymond Spiteri Miško uvaković      NATO's Southern Allies John Chipman, 2004-01-14 This book analyses the internal sources of foreign policy within those NATO states whose primary security concerns lie in the southern area of the Alliance It takes a careful look at foreign and defence policy formulation and assesses the special perspective of each of these countries in turn and the military threats that they face Attention is paid to the role of the military in society especially in the geographically peripheral states as the Alliance seeks to adapt to a possible shift southward of some of its security concerns A full understanding of the politics in each of these states is essential to determine the relative importance of national and Alliance priorities in each country as the tensions between external policies and internal necessities increase The book offers an assessment of evolving security requirements in the southern region and of the capacity of NATO Mediterranean states to deal individually and collectively with the changing situation      Constitutional Politics in Canada after the Charter Patrick James, 2011-01-01 The Charter of Rights and Freedoms was introduced in 1982 Since then Canada has experienced more than twenty five years of constitutional politics and countless debates about whether the Canadian federation is integrating or disintegrating There has however been no systematic attempt to identify general theories about Canada's constitutional evolution Patrick James corrects this oversight by using systemism a concept drawn from the philosophy of science to identify and assess five theories that fall into the liberal or communitarian paradigms These theories are examined in the context of major issues such as the role of the courts or the status of Aboriginal peoples and debates among advocates and critics of each theory are used to work toward a greater understanding of constitutional wrangling in Canada By adding clarity to familiar debates this succinct assessment of major writings on constitutional politics sharpens our vision of the past and the future of the Canadian federation

A Political Economy of the Senses Anita Chari, 2015-10-13 Anita Chari revives the concept of reification from Marx and the Frankfurt School to spotlight the resistance to neoliberal capitalism now forming at the level of political economy and at the more sensate experiential level of subjective transformation Reading art by Oliver Ressler Zanny Begg Claire Fontaine Jason Lazarus and Mika Rottenberg as well as the politics of Occupy Wall Street Chari identifies practices through which artists and activists have challenged neoliberalism's social and political logics exposing its inherent tensions and contradictions

Critical Genealogies Jonathan Arac, 1987-12 Reassessing the ancestry of contemporary criticism Jonathan Arac opens current debates over English studies to a larger understanding of cultural and political history from romanticism through postmodernism This work of creative scholarship enlarges our knowledge of the history of criticism while also exemplifying a new practice of writing literary history Arac draws new lines from Wordsworth Coleridge Shelley and Arnold to their modern successors and to recent developments in Marxism and poststructuralism

What Should Legal Analysis Become? Roberto Mangabeira Unger, 1996-06-17 Unger criticizes the dominant rationalizing style of legal doctrine with its obsessional focus upon adjudication and its urge to suppress or contain conflict or contradiction in law He shows how we can turn legal analysis into a way of talking about the alternative institutional futures of a democratic society The programmatic proposals of Unger's Politics are here placed within a wider field of possibilities

The Handbook of Social and Political Conflict Sergei Samoilenko, Solon Simmons, 2025-03-25 Provides real world insights into social and political conflict across disciplines The Handbook of Social and Political Conflict offers a comprehensive exploration of conflict from a variety of disciplinary perspectives merging insights from fields including sociology political science psychology communication and conflict resolution Bringing together original work by experts from around the world this authoritative volume provides readers with a deep understanding of the mechanisms causes and consequences of conflict Designed for those who wish to bridge academic disciplines the Handbook both advances theoretical understanding and offers practical conflict resolution strategies that can be applied in a broad range of contexts from interpersonal disputes to international tensions Each in depth chapter tackles a unique concept while maintaining a coherent narrative that spans topics such as political polarization the rhetoric of social control the role of technology in shaping conflict behaviors and much more Presenting new theoretical perspectives and tools to address today's most pressing issues the Handbook of Social and Political Conflict Examines contemporary issues such as political polarization social ostracism cancel culture and information warfare Contains in depth analysis of critical contemporary issues such as the role of technology artificial

A Preface to Politics Walter Lippmann, 1914      The Routledge Companion to Intersectionalities Jennifer C.

Nash, Samantha Pinto, 2023-02-28 The Routledge Companion to Intersectionalities is a dynamic reference source to the key contemporary analytic in feminist thought intersectionality Comprising over 50 chapters by a diverse international and interdisciplinary team of contributors the Companion is divided into nine parts Retracing intersectional genealogies Intersectional methods and inter disciplinarity Intersectionality s travels Intersectional borderwork Trans intersectionalities Disability and intersectional embodiment Intersectional science and data studies Popular culture at the intersections Rethinking intersectional justice This accessibly written collection is essential reading for students teachers and researchers working in women s and gender studies sexuality studies African American studies sociology politics and other related subjects from across the humanities and social sciences      Reel Politics Lemi Baruh, Ji Hoon Park, 2020-05-22 In the mid 1980s Neil Postman claimed that television made entertainment the natural format for the representation of all experience While Postman s argument still is pertinent to a description of contemporary television shows it also seems increasingly more accurate to argue that reality based entertainment is quickly becoming the referential format for televisual representations of our experience in the 21st century Chapters in this edited volume explore reality television s place within contemporary media landscape in terms of its potential for political engagement The authors engage with a variety of issues such as politics of authenticity and performance audience reception of political issues ethics and media regulation politics of self presentation modernity and collective identity The diversity of perspectives and issues presented in this book cautions readers both against quickly dismissing reality television s potential as a platform for political discourse and against subscribing to the celebratory rhetoric regarding the democratic potential of reality television Reel Politics Reality Television as a Platform for Political Discourse furthers our understanding of the semiotic openness of the reality text and the variations in social cultural and political contexts across which the reality television genre formulas migrate      Race and the Forms of Knowledge Ben Spatz, 2024-02-15 Enacts a radically interdisciplinary intersectionality to position performance based research in solidarity with decoloniality This boldly innovative work interrogates the form and meaning of artistic research also called practice research performance as research and research creation examining its development within the context of predominately white institutions that have enabled and depoliticized it while highlighting its radical potential when reframed as a lineage of critical whiteness practice Ben Spatz crafts a fluid yet critical new framework explored via a series of case studies that includes Spatz's own practice as research to productively confront hegemonic modes of white writing and white institutionality Ultimately taking Jewishness as a paradigmatically molecular identity variously configured as racial ethnic religious or national they offer a series of concrete methodological and formal proposals for working at the intersections of embodied identities artistic techniques and alternative forms of knowledge Race and the Forms of Knowledge Technique Identity and Place in Artistic Research takes inspiration from recent critical studies of blackness and indigeneity to show how artistic research is always involved in the production and transformation of identity Spatz offers a toolkit of practical methods and concepts from molecular identities to audiovisual ethnotechnics and earthing the laboratory for reimagining the university and other contemporary institutions

Derrida: Ethics Under Erasure Nicole Anderson, 2012-03-08 Derrida's work is controversial its interpretation hotly contested Derrida Ethics Under Erasure offers a new way of thinking about ethics from a Derridean perspective linking the most abstract theoretical implications of his writing on deconstruction and on justice and responsibility to representations of the practice of ethical paradoxes in everyday life The book presents the development of Derrida's thinking on ethics by demonstrating that the ethical was a focus of Derrida's work at every stage of his career In connecting Derrida's earlier work on language with the ethics implicated in his later work on justice and responsibility Nicole Anderson traverses literary linguistic philosophical and ethical interpretative movements thus recontextualising Derrida's entire oeuvre for a contemporary readership She explores the positive ethical implications of Derrida's work for representation and practice and asks the reader to consider how this new ethical reading of Derrida's work might be applied to concrete instances of his or her own ethical experience

The Problem with Stupid Tom Grimwood, 2023-05-26 In the past two decades the rise of a particular commonplace in public debate has emerged on both the Left and the Right the threat of the stupid Far from a throwaway ad hominem stupidity has become a key trope for both explaining and criticising the election results culture wars and the advances of post truth But how do we negotiate the stupid in a meaningful way Does critique and resistance depend on the mobilisation of intellect and what does the prevalence of stupidity as a commonplace suggest about the risks of such a mobilisation What are the resources to work through it outside of condemnation or insult Taking the stupid as a primary figure in today's cultural rhetoric Tom Grimwood uses internet memes film and media alongside philosophical inquiry to present a series of interventions in the assumptions of what makes the stupid dangerous and how to move beyond these assumptions into effective resistance

Towards a New Human Being Luce Irigaray, Mahon O'Brien, Christos Hadjioannou, 2019-03-13 With my own introduction and epilogue Towards a New Human Being gathers original essays by early career researchers and established academic figures in response to To Be Born my most recent book The contributors approach key issues of this book from their own scientific fields and perspectives through calls for a different way of bringing up and educating children the constitution of a new environmental and sociocultural milieu or the criticism of past metaphysics and the introduction of new themes into the philosophical horizon. However, all the essays which compose the volume correspond to proposals for the advent of a new human being so answering the subtitle of To Be Born: Genesis of a New Human Being. To Be Born thus acts as a background from which each author had the opportunity to develop and think in their own way. As such, Towards a New Human Being is part of a longer term undertaking in which I engaged together and in dialogue with more or less confirmed thinkers with a view to giving birth to a new human being and building a new world. Luce Irigaray
