Margaret Keane And Keaneabilia:

Females in the Frame Penelope Jackson, 2019-07-29 This book explores the untold history of women art and crime It has long been widely accepted that women have not played an active role in the art crime world or if they have it has been the part of the victim or peacemaker Women Art and Crime overturns this understanding as it investigates the female criminals who have destroyed vandalised stolen and forged art as well as those who have conned clients and committed white collar crimes in their professional occupations in museums libraries and galleries Whether prompted by a desire for revenge for money the instinct to protect a loved one or simply as an act of quality control this book delves into the various motivations and circumstances of women art criminals from a wide range of countries including the UK the USA New Zealand Romania Germany and France Through a consideration of how we have come to perceive art crime and the gendered language associated with its documentation this pioneering study questions why women have been left out of the discourse to date and how by looking specifically at women we can gain a more complete picture of art crime history

Women of the Underground: Art Zora von Burden, 2012-11-20 It is not about provocation reaction or even invocation it is about transformation mentally and physically Marina Abramovic artist Art is subjective and if one sees something in an image that projection is a reflection of the spectator who sees what he or she wants to see whose critique is relevant to him or herself exposing his or her own perversions Irina Ionesco artist Until the late twentieth century women s creative skills were relegated to craft and decorative arts and valued only for utilitarian purposes in service to others and the manufacturing of products to benefit society After enduring the great injustice of being denied the freedom that self expression brings through art for the joy of the human spirit Women of the Underground Art celebrates those female cultural innovators who are creating new artwork that pushes boundaries dares to question and redefines the genres of mixed media theater film photography and visual conceptual and performance art In this groundbreaking anthology that will inspire artists and everyone interested in alternatives to mainstream culture as well as serve as a reference book for art historians twenty six female artists describe their ideas beginnings influences and creative techniques Contains interviews with Lady Pink Marina Abramovic Orlan Aleksandra Mir Penny Arcade Johanna Went the Guerrilla Girls and many others Editor Zora von Burden was born and raised in San Francisco California A frequent contributor to The San Francisco Herald von Burden also wrote the screenplay for Geoff Corder s underground cult classic film Hotel Hopscotch

Minor Histories Mike Kelley, 2004-02-06 The second volume of writings by Los Angeles artist Mike Kelley focusing on his own work What John C Welchman calls the blazing network of focused conflations from which Mike Kelley s styles are generated is on display in all its diversity in this second volume of the artist s writings The first volume Foul Perfection contained thematic essays and writings about other artists this collection concentrates on Kelley s own work ranging from texts in voices that grew out of scripts for performance pieces to expository critical and autobiographical writings Minor Histories organizes Kelley s writings into five sections Statements consists of twenty pieces produced between 1984 and 2002 most of which were written to accompany exhibitions including Ajax which draws on Homer Colgate Palmolive and Longinus to present its eponymous hero Some Aesthetic High Points an exercise in autobiography that counters the standard artist bio included in catalogs and press releases and a sequence of creative writings that use mass cultural tropes in concert with high art mannerisms approximating in prose the visual styles that characterize Kelley s artwork Video Statements and Proposals are introductions to videos made by Kelley and other artists including Paul McCarthy and Bob Flanagan and Sheree Rose Image Texts offers writings that accompany or are part of artworks and installations This section includes A Stopgap Measure Kelley s zestful millennial essay in social satire and Meet John Doe a collage of appropriated texts Architecture features an discussion of Kelley s Educational Complex 1995 and an interview in which he reflects on the role of architecture in his work Finally Ufology considers the aesthetics and sexuality of space as manifested by UFO sightings and abduction scenarios Los
