After Emma regains her strength, she is excited to explore her new surroundings. She ventures out on her own. Upon seeing her return, one day William turns to a visitor and concedes that's Emma, being Emma. Each adventure is a new experience for Emma, whether it is by herself or accompanied by William or William's wife Molly, and one of the dogs. Emma learns that every person brings new perspectives and lessons. If you look beneath the surface, you will see the true heart of a person. Some people are unkind like her former owner, while some people are really special like William and William's friend Elijah, and other people whom she meets along the way.
