Hey diddle diddle,
The cat and the fiddle,
The cow jumped over the moon,
The little dog laughed
to see such sport,
And the dish ran away with the spoon.

this framework the authors discuss American and French novels and French language plays that offer an insight into today's diverse challenges to being human. They consider the impact of neoliberalism on shaping human affects and intimacies as well as literary responses to socio-economic precarity. The current environmental catastrophe is tackled through novels that question the human responsibility in bringing about for example the sixth mass extinction of species and the anthropocentricity of literature itself. The art and artificiality of theater are shown to be means that allow us to delve into the extremes of human experience for example by revisiting myths that re-interpret desire and question the possibility of a future for human beings.
