Bohnet, 1986 Nursing Care at the End of Life Joyce V Zerwekh, 2005-12-28 Nursing Care at the End of Life Palliative Care for Patients and Families explores the deep issues of caring for the dying and suffering The book is based on the Hospice Family Caregiving Model previously published by the author and focuses on the practice implications of care for the dying The book is written in a clear and user friendly style and is ideal for undergraduate nursing students learning about dying suffering and caring for individuals and their families Nursing Care of the Terminally Ill Madalon Amenta, Madalon O'Rawe Amenta, Nancy L. Bohnet, 1986-01

Nursing Care at the End of Life Ginny Wacker Guido, 2010 Nursing Care at the End of Life by Ginny Wacker Guido incorporates many of the chapter features in High Acuity Nursing 5th ed by Kathleen Dorman Wagner Using this format the author presents material ranging from the legal and ethical aspects that affect care to the clinical issues nurses face when dealing with acute illness pain and dying to communication and family dynamics Case studies give readers an opportunity to process and apply the chapter material The role of the nurse is highlighted throughout the book and each chapter is followed by NCLEX style review questions This is a perfect reference for anyone studying to become a nurse or a nurse needed a professional resource for career success Nutritional Care of the Terminally Ill Charlette R. Gallagher-Allred, 1989

Abstract This book is an authoritative and complete text on the nutritional needs of dying persons in palliative care settings The information is intended for dietitians on palliative care teams Topics include specific appropriate nutritional techniques effective counseling skills and how to participate in interdisciplinary team meetings The objective of this document is to define the roles and responsibilities of dietitians working with terminally ill patients Nursing Support for Families of Dying Patients Rosemary McIntyre, 2001-11-28 When a patient has an advanced disease considerable demands are placed on the whole family Whilst coping with their own profound emotions close relatives commonly have to support their loved ones through a range of treatments as the disease progresses through stages of remission and recurrence until finally a shift to a palliative mode of treatment must be faced In such situations family roles and relationships are likely to be disrupted and family members coping resources can be stretched to the limit It is clear from this that by the time the terminal stage of the patient's illness is reached the family may have travelled a long and difficult road and close relatives are likely to be emotionally vulnerable and in need of support This study explores the needs of relatives of terminally ill patients and the concerns of nurses who provide care in the hospital The research data is used to design implement and evaluate clinical standards for improved family support Compassionate Person-Centered Care for the Dying Bonnie Freeman, 2015-02-23 This groundbreaking reference for palliative care nurses is the first to provide realistic and achievable evidence based methods for incorporating compassionate and humanistic care of the dying into current standards of practice It builds on the author's research based CARES Tool a reference that synthesizes five key elements demonstrated to enable a peaceful death as free from suffering as possible Comfort Airway Management Management of Restlessness and Delirium Emotional and Spiritual Support and Self Care for Nurses The book describes step by step how nurses can easily implement the basic tenets of the CARES Tool into their end of life practice It provides a clearly defined plan that can be individualized for each patient and tailored to specific family needs and facilitates caring for the dying in the most respectful and humane way possible
