Nursing: Decision-Making Skills for Practice Karen Holland, Debbie Roberts, 2013-05-30. Decision making is a key skill for today's nurses. Nursing Decision Making Skills for Practice is an essential guide for student nurses that prepares them to make effective decisions on the ward and in the community. This new title in the Prepare for Practice series details the fundamental knowledge and skills needed to make good decisions across a variety of nursing areas from involving patients in decision making to using the best evidence in care planning. Case studies, activities, and exercises ensure that theories of decision making are brought into real-world nursing situations. Evidence-based and with links to core NMC competencies throughout, this textbook will help undergraduate and qualified nurses to make confident decisions and boost their academic, personal, and professional development.

Creative Clinical Teaching in the Health Professions Sherri Melrose, Caroline Park, Beth Perry, 2021-08-30. For healthcare professionals, clinical education is foundational to the learning process. However, balancing safe patient care with supportive learning opportunities for students can be challenging for instructors, and the complex social context of clinical learning environments makes intentional teaching approaches essential. Clinical instructors require advanced teaching knowledge and skills as learners are often carrying out interventions on real people in unpredictable environments. Creative Clinical Teaching in the Health Professions is an indispensable guide for educators in the health professions. Interspersed with creative strategies and notes from the field by clinical teachers who offer practical suggestions, this volume equips healthcare educators with sound pedagogical theory. The authors focus on the importance of personal philosophies, resilience, and professional socialization.

while evaluating the current practices in clinical learning environments from technology to assessment and evaluation This book provides instructors with the tools to influence both student success and the quality of care provided by future practitioners
