the available informal and formal resources as well as how they react to official diagnoses and decisions are important facets of the management of chronicity In the arena of care people with chronic conditions find themselves negotiating restrictions and handling issues of power and inter dependency in relationships of inequality and proximity This is particularly relevant in current times when care has given in to the lure of the market and the possibility of living a long and fulfilling life has been drastically reduced transformed into a reward for the few who have been deemed worthy of it A to Zoo Rebecca L.
