Papers In Boiotian Topography And History:

Papers in Boiotian Topography and History John M. Fossey, 2024-04-08 To coincide with the publication of his large monograph Topography and Population of Ancient Boiotia we are reprinting a series of 15 of Professor Fossey's previously published papers. These papers scattered across many periodicals were written during the preparation of the monograph; the latter in its turn makes frequent reference to the papers. In this way the two works complement each other: the papers also treat of detailed problems which could not have received the same full discussion in the monograph. The papers are divided into four sections: testimonia, Mykenaian Boiotia, Sites and History of Boiotia from Protohistoric to Classical Times, and Roman Boiotia. Topography and History of Ancient Epicnemidian Lokris José Pascual, Maria-Foteini Papakonstantinou, 2013-09-26 This book presents the results of a major project carried out by a team from the Universidad Autónoma de Madrid and the 14th Ephorate of Prehistoric and Classical Antiquities at Lamia. The book gives a full picture of an extensive area of Greece known as Epicnemidian Lokris, on which very little has been studied and published in the past. Its relevance in historical times was due to its natural environment and mainly on the pass at Thermopylae which marked the physical boundary between central northern Greece and the south, being the scene of repeated conflicts. The book offers a complete picture of what Epicnemidian Lokris was like in the past: its geography, topography, frontiers, and the ancient settlements of the region. Boiotia in Ancient Times John M. Fossey, 2019-10-14 The results of over 50 years of research into the History and Topography of Boiotia: the early development of its League and its coinage; the confrontation with Sparta and the battle of Leuktra; discussion of some cults and myths, especially those of Artemis, Herakles, and the Horseman Hero.

Boeotia Antiqua III John M. Fossey, P.J. Smith, 2023-10-09 McGill University Monographs in Classical Archaeology and History is a series intended for the publication of monographs in the fields of Greek and Roman Archaeology. It may also include monographs concerning Greek and Roman History when they present results acquired directly and not just incidentally from archaeological fieldwork. The keynote of the series is thus archaeological field research, both excavation and topographical study. The series may also house studies in Greek and Latin Epigraphy, since many of the additions in these fields come from the results of archaeological fieldwork. The Ancient Topography of Opountian Lokris John M.

Fossey, 2024-09-02 Following on from the author's Ancient Topography of Eastern Phokis 1986 and Topography and Population of Ancient Boiotia 1988, this monograph completes his studies of settlement in antiquity of Eastern Central Greece, excluding Attika and Megaris. The structure of the book is exactly the same as the parallel work on Eastern Phokis: an account of the physical geography and natural economy of the area is followed by a detailed catalogue of 22 sites in which location, bibliography, and structural remains are discussed; surface finds and inscriptions are listed, and the possible identifications with ancient names are elaborated. After these presentations of the raw data, analytical sections on settlement development and organisation, on fortifications, and on cults follow. Several appendices treat of connex subjects or list various testimonia.

ancient and modern and the work concludes with indices of ancient texts placenames and general subjects Boiotia and the Boiotian League, 432-371 B.C. Robert J. Buck, 1994 The history of the federal state of Boiotia from the outbreak of the Peloponnesian War in 432 BC to the triumph of the states over its enemies in 371 BC is the focus of Professor Buck's study It is especially interesting because the federation underwent so many changes The interplay of political factions with external enemies and with clashing ideologies makes it useful to study City Walls James D. Tracy, 2000-09-25 The essays presented in this volume first published in 2000 describe a phenomenon so widespread in human time and space that its importance is easily overlooked City walls shaped the history of warfare the mobilisation of manpower and resources needed to build them favoured some kinds of polities over others and their massive strength appropriately ornamented created a visual language of authority Previous collective volumes on the subject have dealt mainly with Europe but the historians and art historians who collaborate here follow a comparative agenda The millennial practice of wall building that branched out from the ancient Near East into India Europe and North Africa shows continuities and points of contact of which the makers of urban fortifications were scarcely aware separate traditions in China sub Saharan Africa and North America illustrate universal themes of defensive strategy and the symbolism of power each time embedded in a distinctive local context The Epigraphy and History of Boeotia Nikolaos Papazarkadas, 2014-06-26 Over the past 20 years Boeotia has been the focus of intensive archaeological investigation that has resulted in some extraordinary epigraphical finds The most spectacular discoveries are presented for the first time in this volume dozens of inscribed sherds from the Theban shrine of Heracles Archaic temple accounts numerous Classical Hellenistic and Roman epitaphs a Plataean casualty list a dedication by the legendary king Croesus Other essays revisit older epigraphical finds from Aulis Chaironeia Lebadeia Thisbe and Megara radically reassessing their chronology and political and legal implications The integration of old and new evidence allows for a thorough reconsideration of wider historical questions such as ethnic identities and the emergence rise dissolution and resuscitation of the famous Boeotian koinon Contributors include Vassilios Aravantinos Hans Beck Margherita Bonanno Claire Grenet Yannis Kalliontzis Denis Knoepfler Angelos P Matthaiou Emily Mackil Christel M ller Nikolaos Papazarkadas Isabelle Pernin Robert Pitt Adrian Robu and Albert Schachter Boeotia Antiqua IV John M. Fossey, P.J. Smith, 2023-10-09 McGill University Monographs in Classical Archaeology and History is a series intended for the publication of monographs in the fields of Greek and Roman Archaeology It may also include monographs concerning Greek and Roman History when they present results acquired directly and not just incidentally from archaeological fieldwork The keynote of the series is thus archaeological field research both excavation and topographical study The series may also house studies in Greek and Latin Epigraphy since many of the additions in these fields come from the results of archaeological fieldwork Introduction to an Inventory of 'Poleis' Mogens Herman Hansen, 1996
