his third wife and the Lawrence and Skinner sonnets go the other way above all the panoramas from the mountaintop in the third and fourth the terrors of the night of storm the crisis on the pinnacle of the temple are quite of the best Milton which is equivalent to saying that they are of the best of one kind of poetry Whereas Paradise Lost is ornate in style and decorative in its verse Paradise Regained is carried out in a fairly plain style Specifically Milton reduces his use of simile and deploys a simpler syntax in Paradise Regained than he does in Paradise Lost and this is consistent with Biblical descriptions of Jesus s plainness in his life and teachings in the epic he prefers Hebrew psalms to Greek poetry One major concept emphasized throughout Paradise Regained is the idea of reversals As implied by its title Milton sets out to reverse the loss of Paradise Thus antonyms are often found next to each other reinforcing the idea that everything that was lost in the first epic will be regained by the end of this brief epic Additionally the work focuses on the idea of hunger both in a literal and in a spiritual sense After wandering in the wilderness for forty days Jesus is starving for food Satan too blind to see any non literal meanings of the term offers Christ food and various other temptations but Jesus continually denies him Although Milton s Jesus is remarkably human an exclusive focus on this dimension of his character obscures the divine stakes of Jesus s confrontation with Satan Jesus emerges victorious and Satan falls amazed
