Rethinking Education The Coming Age Of Enlightenment:

Rethinking Education Roger John Williams, 1986 The world's most serious problems involve people's inability to peacefully coexist with other people The only antidote to prejudice injustice murder and terrorism is to develop an understanding of the many different patterns of human life However western civilization and its educational systems have developed into fragmented forms resulting in numerous unrelated disciplines that disregard an overall perspective and do not promote the solution of multifaceted problems This book proposes the unification of all knowledge and offers ideas for educational systems that consider human problems and prepare persons to live in a complex world The benefits of interdisciplinary education include the fostering of human understanding the seeking of mutual efforts toward solutions for human and social problems and prevention of war Factors involved in establishing successful interdisciplinary education programs include 1 positive attitudes 2 their emphasis and use by instructors and 3 growth in the number of interdepartmental university seminars programs and research efforts Appendices include information concerning the history role and interdependence of humanities the social sciences sciences and ethics JHP Resources in Education ,1997

Biographical Memoirs National Academy of Sciences, 2009-12-20 Biographic Memoirs Volume 91 contains the biographies of deceased members of the National Academy of Sciences and bibliographies of their published works Each biographical essay was written by a member of the Academy familiar with the professional career of the deceased For historical and bibliographical purposes these volumes are worth returning to time and again Rethinking Education and Emancipation Nataša Lacković, Igor Cvejic, Predrag Krstić, Olga Nikolić, 2024-03-24 This edited collection responds to the contemporary need for deeper analysis and rethinking of the relation between education and emancipation in a world beset by social digital educational and ecological crises Among the diverse interdisciplinary perspectives explored are rethinking the Anthropocene in the time of environmental emergency the concept of relational thinking as emancipatory practice and a more encompassing concept of relational pedagogy that includes questions about the environment and digitalisation the notion of indoctrination from the perspective of political education reconnecting with the body as a form of emancipatory education and how schools reproduce socio cultural ideologies in synergy with material and visual culture The book chapters also consider the role of social media postcolonialism and feminism in understanding emancipatory education and a historical reception of John Dewey's ideas in other than Western contexts This volume will be of interest to those seeking well known as well as further and novel acquaintance with the philosophical and critical issues surrounding different forms and ideas of emancipation and or through education including related practical propositions and examples Educators scholars in education social justice philosophy sociology and curriculum developers will find this collection valuable in contemplating practising and theorising the futures of emancipatory education across contexts and themes Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2004 Rethinking Education in Light of Global Challenges Karen Bjerg Petersen, Kerstin von Brömssen, Gro

Hellesdatter Jacobsen, Jesper Garsdal, Michael Paulsen, Oleg Koefoed, 2021-11-24 Rethinking Education in Light of Global Challenges discusses challenges to education in Scandinavian welfare states due to global trends like migration neoliberal strategies and the exploitation of nature This anthology comprises case studies theoretical articles and reflective studies grouped under the headings of Culture Society and the Anthropocene This book directly addresses three interrelated global events and their implications for education as seen from Scandinavian perspectives migration flows increased cultural diversity and post nationalism the erosion of the welfare state and the global rise of neoliberalism and the Anthropocene and environmental challenges arising in the wake of the global exploitation of natural ecosystems In case studies theoretical articles and reflective studies researchers from Nordic countries explore how education education policy and educational thinking in these countries are affected by these global trends bringing to the fore the different roles education can play in addressing the various issues and different ways of reimagining education This authoritative volume will be of great interest to researchers academics and students in the fields of sociology of education migration and education environmental education and educational politics The Philosopher's Index ,2009 Vols for 1969 include a section of abstracts

Meeting the Mandate: Renewing the College and Departmental Curriculum William Toombs, William G.

Tierney, 1991-10-14 This monograph addresses the need for reshaping the college undergraduate curriculum in order to meet the new and compelling issues that have emerged from the criticism and analysis of the past decade These issues are as follows 1 how to accommodate diverse races and ethnic traditions and both genders 2 how to incorporate global perspectives on the environment and exchange among nations and 3 how to deal more effectively within the human dimensions of the educational equation Discussed are five conditions for changing the curriculum First a firmer grasp is needed on what the curriculum is as an idea what language can describe it and at what levels it operates The concept of design and a pragmatic terminology give an operational definition Second the flood of criticism dissection recommendation and interpretation visited on the collegiate curriculum merits a careful review Third the need is continuous for modest self analysis dealing with what the academic profession is and what its condition of practice should be Fourth because little is known about what the solutions might be a longer perspective is needed Finally there is a need for wider understanding of the organization and its content Together it is noted these factors can help higher education institutions to recognize the shape of change and the forces of culture within which it moves Contains over 270 references GLR Rethinking Education Across Borders Uttam Gaulee, Shyam Sharma, Krishna Bista, 2020-02-14 This book focuses on critical issues and perspectives concerning globally mobile students aspects that have grown in importance thanks to major geopolitical economic and technological changes around the globe i e in and across major origins and destinations of international students Over the past few decades the field of international higher education and scholarship has developed robust areas of research that guide current policy programs and pedagogy However many of the established narratives and wisdoms that dominate research agendas scope and foci have become somewhat ossified and are unable to reflect recent political upheavals and other changes e g the Brexit Trump era and Belt and Road Initiative that have disrupted a number of areas including mobility patterns and recruitment practices understanding and supporting students engagement of global mobile students with their local counterparts and the political economy of international education at large By re assessing established issues and perspectives in light of the emerging global local situations the contributing authors all experts on international education share insights on policies and practices that can help adapt to emerging challenges and opportunities for institutions scholars and other stakeholders in international higher education Including theoretical empirical and practitioner based methods and perspectives provided by scholars from around the world the book offers a unique and intriguing resource The Writers Directory ,2013 Library Journal ,1985 Post-Enlightenment Self-Education Eugene Matusov,2025-06-16 The book aims to challenge and redefine the traditional Enlightenment approach to education by advocating for a Post Enlightenment model that emphasizes self education rooted in individual autonomy dignity and diverse experiences It critiques the Enlightenment s narrow focus on rationality and hierarchy proposing a more inclusive and personalized method that values emotional intelligence and contextual understanding The book seeks to promote a radical shift towards educational pluralism where learning is driven by the learner s own needs interests and judgments rather than imposed by external authorities Ultimately it calls for a reimagined educational paradigm that aligns with the principles of universal human dignity and autonomy envisioning a future where education is a personal and existential pursuit supported by democratic societal structures New Acquisitions Unesco Institute for Education. Library and Documentation Centre,1986 The Pauling Catalogue: Newspaper clippings, personal library Oregon State University. Libraries. Special Collections,2006 Rethinking Education William F. O'Neill,1983 Choice ,2007-03 Rethinking Mill's Ethics Colin Heydt,2006-06-08 Discussion of John Stuart Mill s ethics has been dominated by concern with right and wrong action as determined by the principle of utility Colin Heydt s book unearths the rich context of moral and socio political debate that Mill did not have to make explicit to his Victorian readers in order to enrich the philosophical analysis of his ethics and to show a famous and misunderstood moralist in a new light
