Rhetoric Of Self In Robert Bly Adrienn:

The Rhetoric of Self in Robert Bly and Adrienne Rich Paul Wadden, 2003 This book pushes beyond modern postmodern dichotomies to show how Robert Bly and Adrienne Rich two of America's most prominent poets engage in a process that is both dialectic and holotropic as they continually create through doubling fuller and more fluid self identity Ultimately their use of alter selves to deepen their subjectivity and transform otherness expands their voice and vision culminating late in their careers in a polyphony of self Bridging literary scholarship and writing pedagogy this book concludes by illustrating how the two poets writing practices offer invigorating models and departure points for writing students in contemporary literature and composition classrooms

Behind the Lines Philip Metres, 2001 This dissertation analyzes the ways in which American lyric poetry has articulated and authorized a new critical discourse about war speaking for and to dissenters against U S involvement in the Second World War the Vietnam War and the Persian Gulf War This study begins with the Second World War when 50 000 American conscientious objectors engaged in nonviolent social action during internment The C O poets Robert Lowell William Stafford and William Everson articulate the dilemmas of direct action in a poetry marked by self accusation and disavowal The Vietnam War provoked a war resistance poetry that explicitly critiqued American nationalism and increasingly addressed the anti war movement visible in the shift in poetic address in Denise Levertov's lyric poetry At the same time Levertov's war poetry renders visible the perils of representing the other John Balaban's poetry and translations from Vietnamese by contrast offer an alternative war resistance narrative communicating the complexities of witness Finally the debate about the ethics of postmodernity between Jean Baudrillard and Christopher Norris in the wake of the Persian Gulf War enables an analysis of the lyric in activist contexts and anthologies June Jordan and Barrett Watten in particular address the new conditions of postmodern warfare bypassing the limits of the lyric through performative and experimental poetics Author s abstract Youth Poets Korina M. Jocson,2008 Counterpoints publishes the most compelling and imaginative books being written in education today Grounded on the theoretical advances in criticalism feminism and postmodernism in the last two decades of the twentieth century Counterpoints engages the meaning of these innovations in various forms of educational expression Committed to the proposition that theoretical literature should be accessible to a variety of audiences the series insists that its authors avoid esoteric and jargonistic languages that transform educational scholarship into an elite discourse for the initiated
