World Bank Anne C. M. Salda,1995 Africa's Management in the 1990s and Beyond Mamadou Dia,1996 In 1992 the World Bank launched the Africa's Management in the 1990s research program a comprehensive study of the issues of institutional capacity building in Sub Saharan Africa and its effects on economic and social development This report focuses on the program and on how to implement its main message institutions must be both rooted in the local context and culture and open to outside challenges and influences Chapters focus on the institutional aspects of capacity building best practices in public administration indigenous private sector development and a framework for reconciliation between institutions

The Paradox of Africa's Poverty Tirfe Mammo,1999 Taking Ethiopia as a case study this work examines the prevailing views on the poverty of much of Africa and argues that the current situation can be reversed by attacking the root causes of poverty once they are properly understood

Food Security Policy in Africa Between Disaster Relief and Structural Adjustment Gabriele Geier,2014-04-08 According to the FAO one person in three in sub Saharan Africa suffers from malnutrition and one in seven is in danger of dying Most African countries no longer seem capable of ensuring that their people have access to sufficient food Given the failure of past efforts the objectives of food security policies and their effectiveness have to be reconsidered This book shows that the debate on food security policies has changed with the passage of time The entitlement debate triggered by A Sen had a major influence on this change but the bearing of socio economic structures on the food security of African households and their individual members are still not fully recognised

Governance Capacity and Economic Reform in Developing Countries Leila L. Frischtak,1994-01-01 The inability to coordinate diverging interests and to promote policies that represent the public interest is one of many non economic obstacles to economic reform This paper examines the relationship between governance capacity and economic reform The

Ester Boserup's Legacy on Sustainability Marina Fischer-Kowalski,Anette Reenberg,Anke Schaffartzik,Andreas Mayer,2014-08-19 Arising from a scientific conference marking the 100th anniversary of her birth this book honors the life and work of the social scientist and diplomat Ester Boserup who blazed new trails in her interdisciplinary approach to development and sustainability

Institutional Development Ronald McGill,2016-07-27 This book reviews the theoretical perspectives on institutional development ID and third world city management It considers the practice of ID in city management by reviewing two related cases on organizational strengthening and building a planning capability both in local government The synthesizing chapters offer some guidelines on and tests for ID in city management practice The book therefore seeks to identify some general principles to guide the ID process in relation to third world city management

Opportunities for private sector participation in agricultural water development and management F. W. T. Penning de Vries,H. Sally,A. Inocencio,2005 This study examines ways to increase food security reduce poverty and achieve economic growth in sub Saharan Africa with water through increased participation of the private sector and publicprivatepartnerships

This report is a summary of the findings from a review of the literature and critical analysis thereof The private sector includes all farmers farm households and agriculture based micro small and medium enterprises MSMEs That is all entities involved in crop livestock and fish production and marketing in post harvest activities and food processing and in supply chains for the goods services and information used in the process The study examines different types of agricultural water development and management These include smallholder subsistence farming cultivation of profit oriented high value crops and peri urban agriculture as well as successful examples of private sector involvement in various functions or processes including planning design construction operations and maintenance The spotlight on water does not imply that other factors such as off farm employment market development and education are unimportant
