Look Away Reality And Sentiment In Southern Art:

A Southern Collection ,1993-02-01 A Southern Collection presents select masterworks from the permanent collection of the Morris Museum of Art on the occasion of the institution's inaugural exhibition Drawn from a comprehensive survey collection of painting in the South from the late eighteenth century to the present day the museum's opening exhibit explores an artistic terrain as rich and diverse as the South itself arranged in categories that reflect critical chronological developments in the art world A survey of painting activity in the South begins with the travels of itinerant portrait artists working prior to the Civil War At the same time landscape painting encompasses a sensitive response to the swamps bayous and fertile fields of the South Late in the nineteenth century strong and vivid genre painting competes with the nostalgic effects realized by Southern impressionists whose shimmering liquid images are invested with an elusive spirit of place In this century those strains of realism and naturalism that characterize the classic body of Southern writing appear in the representational art of painters who defied the modern abstract dictum And finally the exciting compelling works of a current generation of both self taught artists and sophisticated contemporary painters complete this fascinating though sometimes neglected chapter in American art history

Look Away Estill Curtis Pennington,1989 Draws together prevailing ideas on southern art lifestyle and literature to capture the spirit of a place

The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture Judith H. Bonner,Estill Curtis Pennington,Charles Reagan Wilson,2013-01-14 From the Potomac to the Gulf artists were creating in the South even before it was recognized as a region The South has contributed to America's cultural heritage with works as diverse as Benjamin Henry Latrobe's architectural plans for the nation's Capitol the wares of the Newcomb Pottery and Richard Clague's tonalist Louisiana bayou scenes This comprehensive volume shows how through the decades and centuries the art of the South expanded from mimetic portraiture to sophisticated responses to national and international movements The essays treat historic and current trends in the visual arts and architecture major collections and institutions and biographies of artists themselves As leading experts on the region's artists and their work editors Judith H Bonner and Estill Curtis Pennington frame the volume's contributions with insightful overview essays on the visual arts and architecture in the American South

Gullah Images ,2020-05-22 Paintings magisterial and universal that capture the essence of a vibrant African American community In his art Jonathan Green paints the world of his childhood and an ode to a people imbued with a profound respect for the dignity and value of others the Gullah people of the South Carolina barrier islands His canvases beloved for their sense of jubilation and rediscovery evoke the meaning of community in Gullah society and display a reverence for the rich visual oral and spiritual traditions of its culture His art also reveals a keen awareness of the interpersonal social and natural environments in which we live The 180 images assembled in this collection showcase the meaning purpose and beauty that Green finds in the small but critical tasks of life His work elevates the everyday preparing morning meals doing the wash accomplishing farming chores finishing a day's work relaxing in the evening and celebrates the social and religious community dances baptisms weddings funerals Green allows his audience the space and silence to observe people unobtrusively as they pursue life's mission of labor love and belonging and as they work in harmony with nature's mysterious ever-changing fabric While Green's paintings speak specifically to his own upbringing they transcend racial cultural and ethnic boundaries thus allowing individuals of all backgrounds to recall fond memories and to reflect on the place that purpose and dignity hold in their lives In addition to a foreword by Pat Conroy essays by Bettye J Mbitha Parker Smith Lynn Robertson and Ronne Hartfield complement Green's images They tell of the vitality of the Gullah community the progression of Green's career and the authenticity of his work

Southern/Modern Jonathan Stuhlman, Martha R. Severens, 2023-04-19 Inspired by a companion exhibition Southern Modern is the first book to survey progressive art created in the American South during the first half of the twentieth century Featuring twelve essays this lavishly illustrated volume includes all the works from the exhibition and assesses a broader body of contextual pieces to offer a fascinating multipronged look at modernism's thriving presence in the South until now something largely overlooked in histories of American art Contributors take a broad view of the region considering artists working in the states below the Mason Dixon Line and those bordering the Mississippi River It examines the central roles played by women and artists of color providing a fuller richer and more accurate overview of the artistic activity in the region than has been previously presented The book is structured around key themes including the embrace of high modernism the importance of emerging university programs and artist colonies the depiction of rural and urban modern life and the role of artists from the South who left and artists from outside the region who came to the South seeking new subjects Contributors are Daniel Belasco Katelyn D Crawford William Underwood Eiland William R Ferris Shawnya Harris Todd A Herman Karen Towers Klacsmann Leo G Mazow Christopher C Oliver Jeffrey Richmond Moll Martha R Severens Jonathan Stuhlman Rebecca VanDiver and Jonathan Frederick Walz

Romancing the Gullah in the Age of Porgy and Bess Kendra Y. Hamilton, 2024-06-15 Romancing the Gullah in the Age of Porgy and Bess is a literary and cultural history of a place the Gullah Geechee Coast a four state area that's one of only a handful of places that can truly be said to be the cradle of Black culture in the United States Romancing the Gullah seeks to fill a gap and correct the maps While there is a veritable industry of books on literary Charleston and on the lowcountry along with a plenitude of Gullah inspired studies in history anthropology linguistics folklore and religion there has never been a comprehensive study of the region's literary influence particularly in the years of the Great Migration and the Harlem and Charleston Renaissance By giving voice to artists and culture makers on both sides of the color line uncovering buried histories and revealing secret connections between races amid official practices of Jim Crow Romancing the Gullah sheds new light on an only partially told tale A labor of love by a Charleston insider the book imparts a lively and accessible overview of its subject in a manner that will satisfy the book lover and the scholar

Scenic Impressions Estill Curtis Pennington, Martha R. Severens, 2015-12-16 The radical changes wrought by the rise of the salon system in nineteenth century Europe provoked an interesting response from painters in the American South Painterly trends emanating from Barbizon and Giverny emphasized the subtle textures of nature through warm color and broken brush stroke Artists subject matter tended to represent a prosperous middle class at play with the subtle suggestion that painting was indeed art for art s sake and not an evocation of the heroic manner Many painters in the South took up the stylistics of Tonalism Impressionism and naturalism to create works of a very evocative nature works which celebrated the Southern scene as an exotic other a locale offering refuge from an increasingly mechanized urban environment Scenic Impressions offers an insight into a particular period of American art history as borne out in seminal paintings from the holdings of the Johnson Collection of Spartanburg South Carolina By consolidating academic information on a disparate group of objects under a common theme and important global artistic umbrella Scenic Impressions will underscore the Johnsons commitment to illuminating the rich cultural history of the American South and advancing scholarship in the field specifically examining some forty paintings created between 1880 and 1940 including landscapes and genre scenes A foreword written by Kevin Sharp director of the Dixon Gallery and Gardens in Memphis Tennessee introduces the topic Two lead essays written by noted art historians Estill Curtis Pennington and Martha R Severens discuss the history and import of the Impressionist movement abroad and domestically and specifically address the school s influence on art created in and about the American South The featured works of art are presented in full color plates and delineated in complementary entries written by Pennington and Severens Also included are detailed artist biographies illustrated by photographs of the artists extensive documentation and indices Featured artists include Wayman Adams Colin Campbell Cooper Elliott Daingerfield G Ruger Donoho Harvey Joiner John Ross Key Blondelle Malone Lawrence Mazzanovich Paul Plaschke Hattie Saussy Alice Ravenel Huger Smith Anthony Thieme and Helen Turner

The Civil War and American Art Eleanor Jones Harvey, Smithsonian American Art Museum, 2012-12-03 Collects the best artwork created before during and following the Civil War in the years between 1859 and 1876 along with extensive quotations from men and women alive during the war years and text by literary figures including Emily Dickinson Mark Twain and Walt Whitman 15 000 first printing

Baby-boom Daydreams Douglas Bourgeois, Dan Cameron, Estill Curtis Pennington, David S. Rubin, 2003 This monograph features the work of Douglas Bourgeois a figurative artist whose meticulously detailed paintings and sculptural assemblages present icons of popular culture as well as ordinary people from Louisiana s diverse populations Bourgeois work often portrays religious imagery and environmental concerns and the political issues expressed in the rock and roll and movies he loves He fuses private fantasy with a kind a social document exploring everything from racial tensions to violence both domestic and public The artist like the figures he depicts searches for magic or spiritual qualities in everyday life Ultimately he and his art seek redemption 65 colour 21 b w illustrations

Expressions of Place John R. Kemp, 2016-09-27 Expressions of Place embarks on a journey across the rural and urban landscapes of Louisiana via the talents of thirty seven artists located all around the state Many are acclaimed professionals whose paintings are included in major private and public collections regionally and nationally Others have found their followings closer to home All however strive to express impressions of the land with artistic styles that range from traditional to the symbolic and almost totally abstract Such a variety of interpretation becomes possible in a landscape that changes from dark cypress shrouded bayous trembling earth grassy prairies the gritty streets of inner city New Orleans to vast wind swept coastal marshes and the piney hills of north and central Louisiana Rather than stand as an encyclopedia catalog or history of the visual arts in Louisiana Kemp s book is instead a celebration of the state s evocative landscape in the work of accomplished contemporary artists It includes an introductory essay which places these creators and their works in historical context Expressions of Place provides readers with individual essays and biographical sketches in which the artists in their own words give insight as to what they paint how they paint where they paint and why they are drawn to the Louisiana landscape Particularly inspiring the artists discuss their interpretations of that landscape directly with the viewing audience Expressions of Place remains as much about the landscape of the artists imaginations as it is about the land itself With each painting they have created visual poetry of a land and environment that has become a defining part of their lives
