Journal, 1942 Appreciating Our Cosmic Bonds Chidi Giniji, 2008-09 Appreciating Our Cosmic Bonds introduces the philosophy and definition behind the term Re humanism and how this peaceful and honest way of life could touch the people of this world regardless of religion class or race to enhance a better universe Chidi Giniji instills a wakeup call for mankind by introducing an innovative way to view our universe where people question the meaning of life and earnestly want to know why we are here on earth and why we act the way we do While defining his theory for achieving a harmonious planet Giniji emphasizes that re humanists of diverse backgrounds can co exist peacefully because they recognize the simple truth that we are all children of one human family in one world with one origin and one destiny influenced by one ultimate power In a universe where negativity often abounds a Re humanist regards fellow human beings and all creation with due respect and empathy while holding his or her own being in high esteem and dignity a truly uplifting way to live a life and shape a destiny Appreciating Our Cosmic Bonds encourages those who wish to change the world through their own actions making each new day a day of personal reassessment

Human Rights Makau Mutua,2013-07-03 In 1948 the United Nations adopted the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and with it a profusion of norms processes and institutions to define promote and protect human rights Today virtually every cause seeks to cloak itself in the righteous language of rights But even so this universal reliance on the rights idiom has not succeeded in creating common ground and deep agreement as to the scope content and philosophical bases for human rights Makau Mutua argues that the human rights enterprise inappropriately presents itself as a guarantor of eternal truths without which human civilization is impossible Mutua contends that in fact the human rights corpus though well meaning is a Eurocentric construct for the reconstitution of non Western societies and peoples with a set of culturally biased norms and practices Mutua maintains that if the human rights movement is to succeed it must move away from Eurocentrism as a civilizing crusade and attack on non European peoples Only a genuine multicultural approach to human rights can make it truly universal Indigenous non European traditions of Asia Africa the Pacific and the Americas must be deployed to deconstruct and to reconstruct a universal bundle of rights that all human societies can claim as theirs
