General Sherman and the Georgia Belles Cathy J. Kaemmerlen,2006-10-18

The courage and sacrifices of the Southern women who stood in the way of Sherman s March to the Sea from Atlanta to Savannah during the Civil War When General Sherman led 60 000 soldiers on a sixty mile wide path of destruction through Georgia the purpose was to frighten civilians into abandoning the Confederate cause Most Georgia women were left to face the enemy alone their men were off fighting or hiding for fear of being killed or taken as prisoners of war But these steel magnolias were well prepared to protect all that was rightfully theirs Cathy Kaemmerlen a renowned storyteller and historical interpreter provides a colorful collection of tales of exceptional Georgia women who made great sacrifices in an effort to save their families and homes From the innocent diary of a 10 year old girl to the words of a woman who risks everything to see her husband one last time Kaemmerlen exposes the grit and gumption of these remarkable Southern women in inspiring and entertaining fashion      Summer of '87 Erik Kratzer,2014-10-24 Every move I make every decision I employ every thought in my brain and every word I speak are based purely on who I am Who I am is based on the culmination of my reactions and internalization of every situation ever placed in front of me But even with a lifetime of situations and a lifetime of my reactions shaping my outlook on life there is one specific moment that defined me Every other moment bent formed and shaped that definition to finely tweak who I became However fundamentally I was formed from that one moment This is the lead up to that moment When my father moved his family to escape the world and his problems we only saw that new problems arose and the inevitability that the originally problems didn't go away they just changed This is my story
