Sobchack,2004-11-01 In these innovative essays Vivian Sobchack considers the key role our bodies play in making sense of today's image saturated culture Emphasizing our corporeal rather than our intellectual engagements with film and other media Carnal Thoughts shows how our experience always emerges through our senses and how our bodies are not just visible objects but also sense making visual subjects Sobchack draws on both phenomenological philosophy and a broad range of popular sources to explore bodily experience in contemporary moving image culture She examines how through the conflation of cinema and surgery we've all had our eyes done why we are moved by the movies and the different ways in which we inhabit photographic cinematic and electronic space Carnal Thoughts provides a lively and engaging challenge to the mind/body split by demonstrating that the process of making sense requires an irreducible collaboration between our thoughts and our senses

The Westerns and War Films of John Ford Sue Matheson,2016-02-18 Responsible for some of the greatest films of the 20th century The Grapes of Wrath How Green Was My Valley and The Quiet Man among others John Ford was best known for motion pictures that defined the American West and the face of wartime military A Hollywood celebrity Ford lived his life against the background that Twentieth Century Fox fashioned for him As he did the facts of his life merged with and became inseparable from his multifaceted legend fostered by Hollywood's studio culture and his own imagination In The Westerns and War Films of John Ford Sue Matheson offers an engaging look at one of America's greatest directors and the two genres of films that solidified his reputation Drawing on previously unreleased material this volume explores the man the filmmaker the veteran and the legend and the ways in which all of those roles shaped Ford's view of America national character and his creative output

Among the films discussed here in depth are Ford's early productions such as The Iron Horse and Drums along the Mohawk, his military films such as Submarine Patrol, The Battle of Midway and They Were Expendable and his Westerns including Fort Apache, She Wore a Yellow Ribbon, The Searchers and Cheyenne Autumn. Ford imbued many of his creations with a point of view that represented his ideals and the films discussed here illustrate their director's distinct vision of American life on the frontier and in service of the country. That vision, Ford's idealization of the American Character, would in turn shape the worldview of several generations. The Westerns and War Films of John Ford will appeal to critics and scholars but also to any fan of this iconic filmmaker's work.

Kubrick Robert P. Kolker, Nathan Abrams, 2024-02-06 The definitive biography of the creator of 2001 A Space Odyssey, The Shining and A Clockwork Orange, presenting the most in-depth portrait yet of the groundbreaking film maker. The enigmatic and elusive filmmaker Stanley Kubrick has not been treated to a full-length biography in over twenty years. Stanley Kubrick: An Odyssey fills that gap. This definitive book is based on access to the latest research, especially Kubrick's archive at the University of the Arts, London, as well as other private papers plus new interviews with family members and those who worked with him. It offers comprehensive and in-depth coverage of Kubrick's personal, private, public and working life. Stanley Kubrick: An Odyssey investigates not only the making of Kubrick's films but also about those he wanted but failed to make, like Burning Secret, Napoleon, Aryan Papers and A.I. Revealingly, this immersive biography will puncture the controversial myths about the reclusive filmmaker who created some of the most important works of art of the twentieth century.
