Jung, 2014-12-18 The concept of Archetypes and the hypothesis of A Collective Unconscious are two of Jung's better known and most exciting ideas In this volume taken from the Collected Works and appearing in paperback for the first time Jung describes and elaborates the two concepts Three essays establish the theoretical basis which are then followed by essays on specific archetypes The relation of these to the process of individuation is examined in the last section The Archetypes and the Collective Unconscious is one of Jung's central works There are many illustrations in full colour The Tibet Journal, 2001 Coleridge, Romanticism and the Orient David Vallins, Kaz Oishi, Seamus Perry, 2013-08-08 While postcolonial studies of Romantic period literature have flourished in recent years scholars have long neglected the extent of Samuel Taylor Coleridge's engagement with the Orient in both his literary and philosophical writings Bringing together leading international writers Coleridge Romanticism and the Orient is the first substantial exploration of Coleridge's literary and scholarly representations of the east and the ways in which these were influenced by and went on to influence his own work and the orientalism of the Romanticists more broadly Bringing together postcolonial philosophical historicist and literary critical perspectives this groundbreaking book develops a new understanding of Orientalism that recognises the importance of colonial ideologies in Romantic representations of the East as well as appreciating the unique forms of meaning and value which authors such as Coleridge associated with the Orient
