Transformation Bola Dauda, Toyin Falola, 2021-09-09 This timely and expansive biography of Wole Soyinka the Nigerian writer Nobel laureate and social activist shows how the author's early years influence his life's work and how his writing in turn informs his political engagement Three sections spanning his life major texts and place in history connect Soyinka's legacy with global issues beyond the borders of his own country and indeed beyond the African continent Covering his encounters with the widespread rise of kleptocratic rule and international corporate corruption his reflection on the human condition of the North-South divide and the consequences of postcolonialism this comprehensive biography locates Wole Soyinka as a global figure whose life and works have made him a subject of conversation in the public sphere as well as one of Africa's most successful and popular authors Looking at the different forms of Soyinka's work plays novels and memoirs among others this volume argues that Soyinka used writing to inform mobilize and sometimes incite civil action in a decades-long attempt at literary social engineering      Reimagining Pan-Africanism Soyinka, Wole, Amin, Samir, 2016-01-18 In the nineteen 60s and 70s the University of Dar es Salaam was recognised internationally as a great academic institution and the site of anti-colonialist anti-imperialist socialist studies and activism With the onslaught of neo-liberalism beginning with Structural Adjustment Programmes in Tanzania in the mid 80s the university was one of its prime targets subjected to numerous pressures designed to extinguish the flames of revolutionary scholarship and activism The establishment in 2008

of the Mwalimu Nyerere Chair on Pan Africanism with Professor Issa Shivji as its first Chairman and the annual Distinguished Nyerere Lectures Series inaugurating annual intellectual festivals was in Professor Shivji's introduction to this volume of collected lectures the resurrection of radical Pan Africanism at the University of Dar es Salaam The impact of the festivals and the lectures went well beyond the university community as substantial number of the participants at these lectures and debates were citizen intellectuals not part of the university community The calibre of the distinguished lecturers speaks for itself there could be no better representation of progressive African intellectuals honouring the legacy of Mwalimu Nyerere than Professors Wole Soyinka Samir Amin Bereket Habte Selassie Micere Githae Mugo and Thandika Mkandawire whose lectures are published in this book works relating them to the controversies generated by Soyinka's use of literature and theatre for radical political purposes. He gives a fascinating account of the profound but paradoxical affinities and misgivings Soyinka has felt about the significance of the avant garde movements of the twentieth century. Jeyifo also explores Soyinka's works with regard to the impact on his artistic sensibilities of the pervasiveness of representational ambiguity and linguistic exuberance in Yoruba culture. The analyses and evaluations of this study are presented in the context of Soyinka's sustained engagement with the violence of collective experience in post independence postcolonial Africa and the developing world. No existing study of Soyinka's works and career has attempted such a systematic investigation of their complex relationship to politics.
