Missionary Responses To Tribal Religions At Edinburgh 191:

Missionary Responses to Tribal Religions at Edinburgh, 1910 John Stanley Friesen, 1996 One of the most notable achievements of Christian missionaries during the last quarter of the nineteenth century was their contribution to the emerging disciplines of anthropology and the comparative study of religion particularly in tribal societies This study focuses on the twentieth century missionary landmark the First World Missionary Conference at Edinburgh in 1910 This study breaks new ground by describing five models that demonstrate the range with which missionaries of the Imperialist Era 1880-1920 interpreted tribal religious traditions in relation to the Christian message Friesen's study reflects both an interdependence and a critique of the political religious and anthropological spirit of the times The Imperial Horizons of British Protestant Missions, 1880-1914 Andrew N. Porter, 2003 Christian missions have long been associated with the growth of empire and colonial rule For just as long the nature and consequences of that association have provoked animated debate over such themes as culture and identity This volume brings together studies of changing attitudes and practices in Protestant missions during the hectic decades of European imperial and territorial expansion between 1880 and 1914 Written by acknowledged experts The Imperial Horizons of British Protestant Missions includes chapters on the imperial and ecclesiastical ambitions of the high church Society for the Propagation of the Gospel the role of empire as an arena for working out Christian understandings of atonement the international politics of the missionary movement conflicting understandings of race missionary strategies and the transfer of Western scientific knowledge Indian nationalist responses to Christian teaching and changing interpretations of Western missionary methods in China and of female missionary roles in South Africa Contributors D W Bebbington John W de Gruchy Deborah Gaitskell John M MacKenzie Chandra Mallampalli Steven Maughan Lauren F Pfister Andrew Porter Andrew C Ross Brian Stanley Comprehending Mission Stanley H. Skreslet, 2012 This comprehensive book offers a concise overview of the development of missiology over the last century an introduction to its characteristic methodologies and insight into the kinds of questions missiologists typically bring to the study of their subject From back cover Sanskriti, 2007 Thấu Hiểu Sự Mạng Stanley H.  School of Divinity Geschichte des globalen Christentums Jens Holger Schjørring, Norman A. Hjelm, 2017-12-20 The way in which the world s religions are intertwined in the dynamics of global development has become obvious in the twenty first century This also applies to Christianity In view of the fact that its historiography is still predominantly regional or national however little is known about Christianity s historical process of development to become a religion that is globally active and plurally differentiated The second volume presents a comprehensive interdenominational and interdisciplinary history of global Christianity in the nineteenth century for the first time in the German speaking countries Renowned theologians church historians and historians trace the numerous upheavals associated with the long nineteenth century that brought Christianity into the modern age Bibliographic Index ,1997 American Book Publishing Record ,1995 Hope in Times of Crisis Marina Ngursangzeli Behera, Michael Biehl, Risto Jukko, Kenneth R. Ross, 2025-06-06 The early twenty first century has dashed hopes for a more peaceful harmonious and prosperous world order as many societies have been plunged into conflict and living conditions for many have become ever more precarious The crisis is compounded by the advance of damaging climate change that jeopardizes the future of life on earth Where can the imagination be found to meet such an unprecedented crisis This book mines one hundred years of ecumenical reflection on mission affirming the strengths of this tradition It does so in a spirit of metanoia repentance recognizing that churches and missions were often complicit in trends that have proved to be damaging At the same time it draws on elements of renewal in thinking about mission cherishing of life environmental responsibility action for justice deepening of spirituality working from a basis in ecumenical Christianity to make common cause with people of all faiths and convictions who share similar concerns While the book is unflinching in confronting the injustice and destructiveness of the prevailing world order its final message is one of hope proposing that a retrieval and renewal of the ecumenical vision holds the promise of a brighter future Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South Mark A. Lamport, 2018-06-01 Christianity has transformed many times in its 2 000 year history from its roots in the Middle East to its presence around the world today From the mid twentieth century onward the presence of Christianity has increased dramatically in Asia Africa and Latin America and the majority of the world s Christians are now nonwhite and non Western The Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South traces both the historical evolution and contemporary themes in Christianity in more than 150 countries and regions The volumes include maps images and a detailed timeline of key events The phrases Global Christianity and World Christianity are inadequate to convey the complexity of the countries and regions involved this encyclopedia with its more than 500 entries aims to offer rich perspectives on the varieties of Christianity where it is growing how the spread of Christianity shapes the faith in various regions and how the faith is changing worldwide
